2009 MEDIA GUIDE • MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS
Requests for working press credentials should be made to the BGSU Athletic Communications Office, addressed to the attention of Dave Meyer. Requests should be made at least one week in advance. Late requests will be honored if space is available, but parking cannot be guaranteed for requests less than one week in advance. Scouts and non-working media will be seated if space is available.

WEEKLY INFORMATION
Media members can access BGSU information via the internet at BGSUFalcons.com. Weekly game notes and statistics will be updated regularly. A PDF version of releases and statistics can be e-mailed to those outlets which would prefer to receive this information on a regular basis. Please notify Dave Meyer if you would like to be put on our primary media e-mail list.

MAC TELECONFERENCE
Coach Clawson will be available each Monday during the regular season on the weekly MAC Teleconference (10:48-10:56 a.m., Eastern). To join this MAC Teleconference please contact the MAC at 216-466-5622 and ask for Jeremy Guy.

WEEKLY PRESSER
Coach Dave Clawson will hold a weekly media press conference each Monday at noon in the Team Meeting Room on the second floor of the Sebo Athletic Center. All members of the media are welcome to attend. Out-of-town media should contact Dave Meyer to schedule a phone interview with Coach Clawson or players at least one day in advance. All phone interviews need to be completed by Monday evening.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS
All interviews with members of the team should be conducted at Coach Clawson's Monday media press conference. Players will be made available at noon to those in attendance. Please allow at least 24 hours to set up interviews with players. Arrangements will be made for telephone and in-person interviews at a time that is mutually agreeable to the reporter/broadcaster and the athlete, should there be a schedule conflict.

PARKING
A special media parking lot is located adjacent to Doyt Perry Stadium, near the southwest corner of the stadium. Access to the media lot is by Alumni Drive which connects Mercer Road (near the Alumni Center) and Wooster Street (near the Information Booth). Admission to the media lot is restricted to people holding the correct credential acquired from the athletic communications office. All media members are asked to enter the stadium through the press gate (Gate 2) at the southwest corner of the stadium.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS
At Home: Coach Clawson and BGSU players will be available for post-game interviews in the Sentinel-Tribune Room located between the two locker rooms, following the normal cooling-off period. BGSU observes a closed locker room policy. The Sentinel-Tribune Room is on the east side of the stadium (opposite the press box), and can be entered through the tunnels at either the north or south end. On the road: Coach Clawson and requested players will be made available in a designated media room or just outside the locker room following the normal cooling-off period.

PRESS GATE
The press gate (Gate 2) at Doyt L. Perry Stadium is at the southwest corner of the stadium, a short walk from the media parking lot.

MEDIA FIELD POLICY
A general media pass will allow you access to the field during pre-game warmups and during the final five minutes of the fourth quarter only. Field access at other times will be limited to working photographers and television reporters. No interviews may be conducted on the field and any attempt to do so may lead to the loss of your media pass.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

PRESS BOX SERVICES
Members of the media will be provided with game programs, flip cards, current statistics and last-minute pregame notes prior to the start of the game. Statistical summaries will include play-by-play, quarter stats, halftime stats, complete team and individual stats and tackles. The BGSU Press Box does have a wireless internet connection for all members of the media.

RADIO & TELEVISION
Requests for permission to broadcast must be made in writing. Space will be made available for the official visiting radio station and student radio station on request. There is space in each booth for four persons. Phone lines can be ordered through Dave Meyer. Anyone wishing to televise a game from Doyt L. Perry Stadium should contact the athletic communications office at least ONE MONTH prior to the game, and preferably before the start of the season.

Falcon Sports Radio Network

WFRO 99.1 FM begins its first year as the flagship station for Bowling Green athletics beginning in the 2009-10 season.

Todd Walker (left) begins his seventh season as the "Voice of the Falcons" while John Gibson (right) returns to the radio booth after serving as the analyst for Falcon football for three seasons (2003-05).

"The Falcon Sports Network has found a tremendous home in BAS Broadcasting and WFRO," Cal Bowers, general manager for Falcon Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports and the multimedia rights holder for BGSU Athletics, said. "We look forward to growing our sports network through them as well as aggressively adding affiliates in and around the state of Ohio."

Under the terms of the five-year agreement, WFRO Eagle 99 will carry all football and men's basketball games, as well as the live Falcons Nest Coaches Show, which airs on Monday nights from Fricker's in Bowling Green. Additionally, all radio broadcasts are available on the web at the official home of Bowling Green athletics, www.bgsufalcons.com.

"This is exciting news for Falcon fans and radio listeners," Jim Lorenzen and Tom Klein, owners of BAS Broadcasting, said. "We are delighted to continue this relationship with BGSU. It is positive in all aspects for all parties involved, including the many loyal listeners and supporters of Eagle 99."

In addition to Bowling Green State University, Learfield Sports manages multimedia rights for more than 50 collegiate institutions and associations and titles the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup. The company also manages marketing partnerships for the Black Coaches & Administrators (BCA) and provides exclusive sports programming to more than 1,000 radio stations throughout the country. For additional corporate information and a complete collegiate portfolio, visit www.learfieldsports.com.

2009 SEASON OUTLOOK

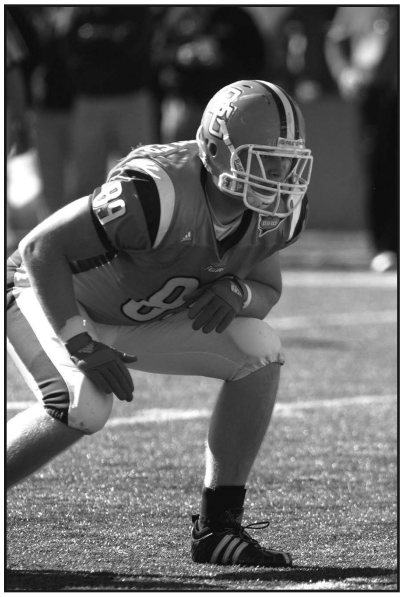

2009 OUTLOOK • Q & A WITH DAVE CLAWSON

For the past eight years BGSU fans have been watching the spread offense, how will the Dave Clawson offense look?
"Because Bowling Green has been a spread offense for some many years, the talent that is here is best suited to run the spread. There will be a lot of spread concepts that we will run and over time we would like to introduce more of a fullback and a tight end, but not necessarily together. Right now the best personnel on hand is best suited to run the spread."

Has Tyler Sheehan cemented himself as the No. 1 quarterback and what does he do that impresses you most?
"Tyler is clearly the No. 1 quarterback. I think the biggest competition is who is No. 2. We are hoping that Tyler stays healthy and has a great senior year. One of the real priorities in camp is to get him to play at the highest level, but also to make sure we build depth at the position. Tyler has played a lot of football. He doesn't get rattled or thrown off easily. He is a pretty steady hand, has good arm strength and is accurate."

You seem to have a solid 1-2 punch at running back, but is depth a concern at all?
"Out of the spring Willie Geter and Chris Bullock are the top two backs. That is a position that Steven Dunlap, Zach Akenberger or any one of the freshmen can come in and get playing time. I think this is another position where our top guys are set, but after Willie [Geter] and Chris [Bullock], who is going to step up and become a factor at that position."

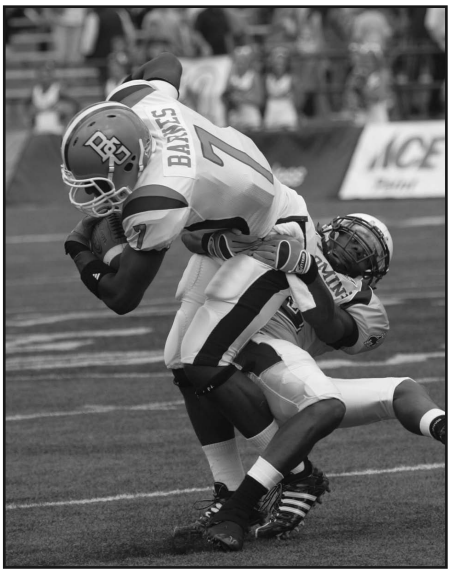

Since arriving at BGSU you have talked about installing more tight end looks. Have you been satisfied with the progress that position has made?
"Jimmy Scheidler is clearly the No. 1 tight end. That is a theme that is going to run through our football team. There was not a ton of competition in the spring. There were clearly guys at No. 1 on the depth chart, but the real battle is who can press those guys to play at a higher level and how do we develop depth at each position including the tight end. Whether it is Nick Rieke, DeMark Jenkins or if a freshman comes in and impacts the position, that is what is going to be interesting to see."

Senior Tight End
Jimmy Scheidler

Depth seems to be a concern at a lot of positions. Is it a major concern of yours heading into 2009?
"Yes, very concerned. We are a senior heavy team and there is not a lot of numbers or depth in the three classes that follow that. We are going to have some very interesting competition between some upperclassmen and freshmen to develop depth and hopefully fight for playing time."

Despite losing three impact players from 2008, do you feel the wide receiver position is one of your deepest?
"I feel that at that position we have more depth than anywhere else. To begin with, you have four seniors. Freddie Barnes, Tyrone Pronty, Calvin Wiley and Chris Wright are all guys that have played. We have some younger guys coming along as well in Adrian Hodges and Ray Hutson. There are a number of guys there that are capable of helping us to play winning football."

Freddie Barnes is one of four senior wide receivers Dave Clawson will have in his arsenal in 2009.

On the offensive line three of the five positions seem to be settled, but how do you go about replacing the right side of your offensive line?
"We sure do feel great about Brady Minturn, Shane Steffy and Ben Bojicic and what they have done, but the true competition is on the right side. We have a number of guys battling there, but we need some guys to step up."

2009 OUTLOOK • Q & A WITH DAVE CLAWSON

On the defensive side of the ball how do you envision the defense breaking down? Are you going to play mostly a base defense or will you be more of a blitzing defense?

"Any good defense has the ability to do both. You have to be able to play your base defense effectively, you have to be able to match up with all formations and personnel groups and you have to make sure players know what they are doing and being technically sound. Other times you have to be able to mix it up and keep an offense off balance. Good defenses are good at both and we are going to work hard to make sure that is what we do."

After losing all four defensive starters from 2008, is the front four your biggest concern on the defensive side of the ball?

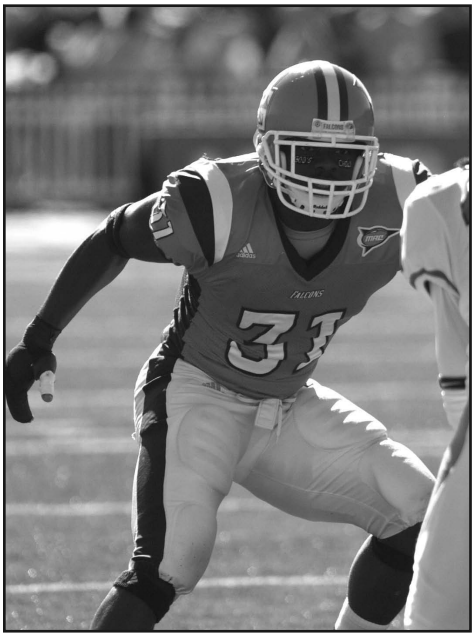

"We have a lot of younger guys there, not a lot of experience. Hopefully with the freshman class we can develop some depth there. That is certainly a concern but we had some guys that had real solid springs and guys that have a tremendous amount of upside. That will be a fun group to watch develop as the year goes along."

'Andrew Johnson

Despite losing two starting linebackers it has to be a nice feeling to have two seniors returning in Cody Basler and Jerett Sanderson.

"It is a little bit of a broken record but I think the top guys there, Jerett Sanderson, Cody Basler, James Schneider and Champ Fells will be fine, but where does the depth come from. That is where a few guys that have been in the program for a year or two are going to have some opportunities as well as the freshmen are going to have an opportunity to impact the position."

Senior Defensive Back
Roger Williams

The defensive backfield lost two starting cornerbacks, but return two starters at the safety position. How are those positions breaking down?

"I feel really good about the safeties. Jahmal [Brown] and P.J. [Mahone] have a chance to be two of the top safeties in the league. At the corner positions, Roger Williams did a really nice job of securing one of the corner positions with a nice spring and the other position is wide open. There are a number of guys that can compete for playing time there. Adrien Spencer, Marquese Quiles, Robert Lorenzi or a freshman can come in and help us."

How is the battle for the kicking position progressing?

"It is going to be a battle in camp. Nick Iovinelli will certainly come in as the punter and Jerry Phillips and Matt Oczypok will compete for the kicking job."

Clawson Era Begins; Falcons Open 2009 With New Direction

On Dec. 12, 2008 Dave Clawson was named the 17th head coach in Bowling Green State University history. In his brief time at BGSU he hired seven new coaches and signed 22 players to National Letters of Intent, leading up to his first spring practice (Mar. 27) and Spring Game (Apr. 25). The Clawson Era began back in December, but the first true test will begin when the Falcons host Troy on Sept. 3 to open the 2009 season.

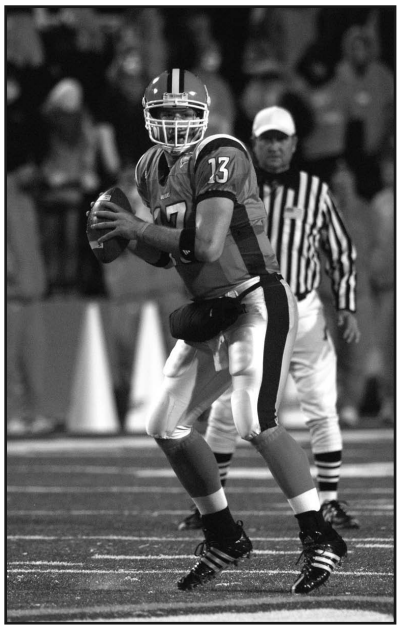

Offensively the Falcons return seven starters from a team that finished sixth in the MAC, averaging 27.7 points per game. Senior Tyler Sheehan returns for his third year as the Falcons' starting quarterback. Sheehan, who was named to the third-team All-MAC as a sophomore in 2007, threw for 2,610 yards and 20 touchdowns in 2008. The Falcons also return three starting offensive linemen (Brady Minturn, Shane Steffy and Ben Bojicic), pass catchers Freddie Barnes and Jimmy Scheidler and senior tailback Chris Bullock.

On the defensive side of the ball the Falcons said goodbye to eight starters, including four defensive linemen and two linebackers and defensive backs. The lone front seven returning member is linebacker Jerett Sanderson. In the secondary P.J. Mahone and Jahmal Brown return for their fourth years with the Orange and Brown.

Quarterbacks
Lettermen Returning: 2, Lettermen Lost: 0
Starters Returning: 1, Starters Lost: 0

Under center the Falcons will return Tyler Sheehan, who has started 25 games the past two seasons. Last year the Cincinnati, Ohio, native threw for 2,610 yards and 20 scores, while chipping in with 237 yards on the ground and a team-high seven rushing scores. He completed 66.8 percent of his passes on the year, the second-highest completion percentage in school history, and was named MAC East Offensive Player of the Week twice in his junior campaign.

Running Backs
Lettermen Returning: 4, Lettermen Lost: 1
Starters Returning: 1, Starters Lost: 0

The running back position is loaded with talent, returning three of their top four rushers from a year ago, but gone is Anthony Turner, who led the Falcons with 400 yards on the ground in 2008. Returning will be Chris Bullock, Willie Geter and Jason Rice, all of which had breakout games throughout the year in 2008.

Bullock finished second on the team with 384 yards on the ground, but his biggest impact came in the season-opening win at Pittsburgh, when he had 94 combined yards, helping the Falcons to a 27-17 win over the No. 25 Panthers.

Geter made just one start all season, but had 160 yards on 12 carries in a win at Toledo, including a 70-yard score. He averaged 6.7 yards a carry, his second consecutive year averaging over six yards per carry (avg. 6.1 as a freshman). He finished the year with 301 yards on the ground and one touchdown.

2009 OUTLOOK • POSITION BREAKDOWN

Rice, who began his Falcon career as a walk-on, was thrust into the action versus Kent State last year after several Falcon tailbacks were on the shelf. Rice ended the contest with 91 yards on eight carries and one touchdown. The running back added a 42-yard completion in that same contest, the first of his career.

Wide Receivers/Tight Ends
Lettermen Returning: 8, Lettermen Lost: 4
Starters Returning: 3, Starters Lost: 2
While the Falcons did say goodbye to Corey Partridge (182 career rec., 1,990 yds.) and Marques Parks (61 career rec., 752 yds.), they return a handful of pass catchers for Sheehan to throw to. Freddie Barnes, who suffered several injuries in 2008, still managed to finish second on the team with 40 receptions for 355 yards. Barnes led the team in receptions in 2007 with 82, the third-best mark in school history. Tyrone Pronty (29 rec., 197 yds) and Chris Wright (22 rec., 249 yds.) played a major role in the Falcon rotation last season and will be joined by Adrian Hodges and Ray Hutson in 2009.

Tight end Jimmy Scheidler came onto the scene out of nowhere last season, opening the season with three catches, including two touchdowns, in the Falcons' win at No. 25 Pittsburgh. He finished the year with 17 receptions for 150 yards and a team-high seven touchdown grabs.

Bowling Green will return three starters from last year's squad on the offensive line. Returning will be Brady Minturn (13 career starts), Ben Bojicic (12 career starts) and Shane Steffy (24 career starts). The Falcons will have to find a way to replace the right side of their line after Brandon Curtis and Jeff Fink ended their careers in 2008. Scott Lewis, Scott Albert and Tyler Donahue all played in 2008, while the Falcons red-shirted five members of the offensive line in 2008.

Defensive Line
Lettermen Returning: 6, Lettermen Lost: 5
Starters Returning: 0, Starters Lost: 4
While the Falcons did lose all four starting defensive linemen heading into 2009, the Falcons will return several guys that saw significant action in 2008. Angelo Magnone (27 tackles, 1.0 sacks), Kevin Alvarado (16 tackles), Andrew Johnson (15 tackles, 3.0 sacks) and Nick Torresso (9 tackles) all saw significant time in the trenches last year.

The Falcons also signed six defensive linemen to National Letters of Intent in February to help provide depth for the Orange and Brown.

Linebackers
Lettermen Returning: 5, Lettermen Lost: 3
Starters Returning: 1, Starters Lost: 2
Senior Jerett Sanderson will be the lone starter returning to the linebacker group for 2009. Sanderson finished sixth on the team with 68 tackles. He chipped in with two interceptions and eight pass breakups, as he finished his first year as a linebacker (served as a safety his first two seasons with the Falcons).

Sanderson will be joined by a handful of guys, most notably Cody Basler. Basler filled in at middle linebacker for two games last season, one coming versus Wyoming in which he had six tackles, an interception and a fumble recovery, earning MAC East Defensive Player of the Week honors. He finished the year with 42 tackles.

Other Falcons expected to compete for playing time include Eugene Fells, James Schneider and Aaron Davis.

Defensive Backs
Lettermen Returning: 6, Lettermen Lost: 2
Starters Returning: 2, Starters Lost: 2
The Falcons will return half of a starting secondary that was one of the tops in the league in 2008. Gone are cornerbacks Kenny Lewis and Antonio Smith, but returning are both starting safeties in Jahmal Brown and P.J. Mahone. Mahone led the team with 95 tackles and was second on the team with three interceptions. He started all 12 games, finishing with double-figure tackles on four different occasions. Brown was third on the team with 83 tackles. He added 3.5 tackles for loss and seven pass break-ups.

Who will be joining Mahone and Brown will be the major question. Roger Williams is the lone cornerback that saw any action in 2008. Keith Morgan and Adrien Spencer, both highly recruited out of high school, saw limited action on specials teams, but no game action in the secondary.

Special Teams
Lettermen Returning: 3, Lettermen Lost: 1
Starters Returning: 1, Starters Lost: 1
Nick Iovinelli returns for his third year as the team's punter after being named to the third-team All-MAC last season. The senior averaged 40.4 yards a punt, including 12 punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line, and had another seven punts go for 50-plus yards. Iovinelli even recorded the third longest punt in school history at Pittsburgh when he boomed a 79-yarder to the Panther's 2-yard line.

Freshman kicker Jerry Phillips is expected to handle field goals and extra points in 2009, while Neal Dahlman and Craig Rutherford will continue to serve as the team's long snappers.

COACHES AND STAFF

Dave Clawson

Head Coach, First Season
Williams College-Massachusetts, 1989

Dave Clawson became the 17th head football coach at Bowling Green State University on Dec. 12, 2008.

Clawson brings 20 years of coaching experience, including nine years of head coaching experience, most recently at Richmond (2004-07) and Fordham (1999-2003), where he combined for a 58-49 record. In 2007 he led the Richmond Spiders to the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision semifinals.

Clawson twice has been named national Division I-AA Coach of the Year, winning once at Fordham and once at Richmond, and was named his league's coach of the year four times in a seven-year span. In 2005 and 2007, the Richmond Touchdown Club selected him College Coach of the Year, and he was an Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award finalist in 2002 and 2005.

His two head coaching jobs resurrected first Fordham, boosting a Rams program coming off 12 straight losing seasons into NCAA playoff participants, and then Richmond, which twice advanced to the postseason. Before that, Clawson called the offensive plays for another pair of Division I-AA powerhouses in Lehigh and Villanova.

Quarterback development and pro production have been Clawson staples. Eight times in his 14 years as either an offensive coordinator or head coach, Clawson's quarterbacks earned all-conference honors. In addition, NFL regulars such as two-time 1,000-yard rusher Brian Westbrook (Eagles), receiver Brian Finneran (Falcons), tailbacks Rabih Abdullah (Buccaneers, Bears and Patriots) and Tim Hightower (Cardinals), quarterbacks Stacey Tutt (Jets) and Kevin Eakin (Bills), and defensive lineman Aki Jones (Redskins) played for Clawson.

Clawson Honors

- 2007 CAA Coach of the Year

2005 & 2007 Virginia Sports Information Directors Association Division-I Commonwealth Coach of the Year

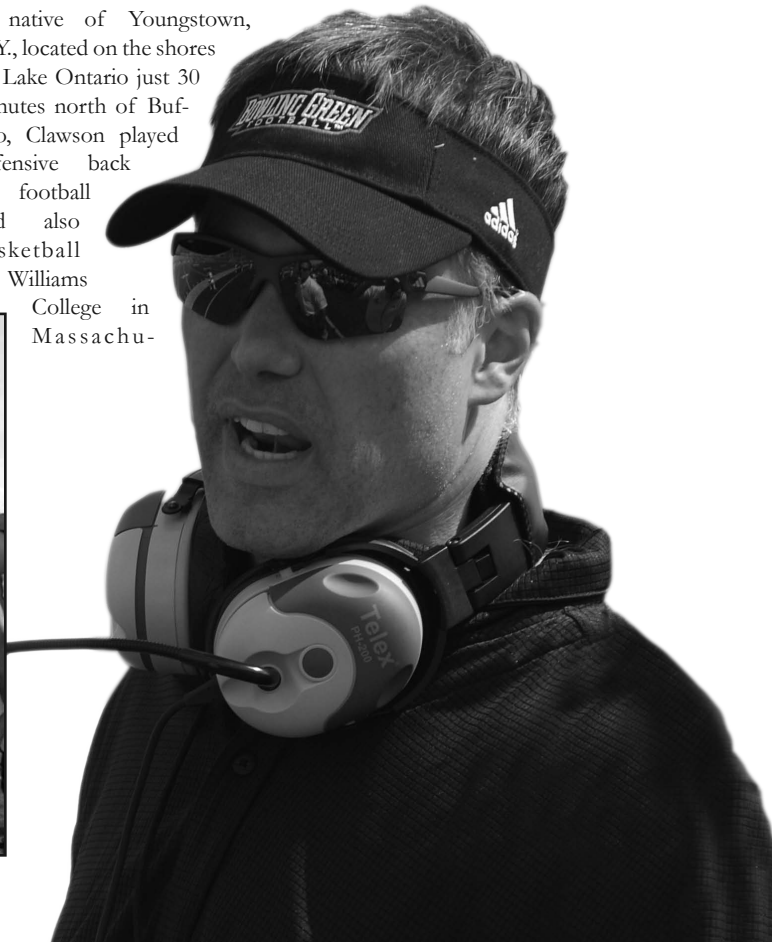

- 2005 I-AA.org National Coach of the Year
- 2005 Atlantic-10 Coach of the Year
- 2002 & 2005 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Finalist
- 2002 Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly I-AA National Coach of the Year
- 2002 Patriot League Coach of the Year
- 2001 Patriot League co-Coach of the Year

In 1998 he accepted the head coaching position at Fordham, where he became the youngest Division I head coach in the nation (31). His 19 combined victories during his final two years (2002-03) at Fordham were the most wins there in back-to-back seasons since 1918-19.

Then he guided Richmond to the biggest two-year turnaround in Spider football's 124-year history, improving from 3-8 his first season of 2004 to 9-4 and an NCAA playoff berth the following year.

A native of Youngstown, N.Y., located on the shores of Lake Ontario just 30 minutes north of Buffalo, Clawson played defensive back in football and also basketball at Williams College in Massachusetts. He graduated in 1989, and then began a two-year assistant coaching stop at Albany. From there, he coached two years at Buffalo and three at Lehigh, including his first two years, 1994-95, as an offensive coordinator.

Clawson then was named offensive coordinator at Villanova, where he helped establish 70 school records and led the Wildcats to the I-AA playoffs in 1996 and 1997. Under Clawson's tutelage, receiver Brian Finneran won the Walter Payton Award, given to I-AA's most outstanding player, and running back Brian Westbrook became the first student-athlete in NCAA history to gain more than 1,000 yards rushing and 1,000 yards receiving in a season.

Clawson and his wife, Catherine, are the parents of two children, Courtney and Eric.

Warren Ruggiero

Offensive Coordinator/QBs, First Season
Delaware, 1988

Warren Ruggiero will begin his first year as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Bowling Green State University.

Ruggiero has Northwest Ohio ties, having served as the running backs coach, quarterbacks coach, offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator for Defiance for five seasons (1989-93).

Ruggiero spent the past season as the quarterbacks coach at Kansas State where he helped lead the Wildcat signal callers to a combined 59-percent completion percentage, 3,235 yards and 20 scores. The KSU quarterbacks also threw just 10 interceptions in 425 passes. As good as the KSU quarterbacks were at throwing the ball, they also added 464 yards and 15 scores on the ground, helping the Kansas State offense to an average of 34.9 points and 402.1 yards per game.

Ruggiero spent the past season coaching quarterback Josh Freeman, who declared early for the 2009 NFL draft. Freeman was selected with the 17th pick in the draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

It won't be the first time Ruggiero helped coach a player to the NFL. In 2005 he coached future New Orleans Saints wide receiver Marques Colston, who was named to the NFL All-Rookie Team that next season.

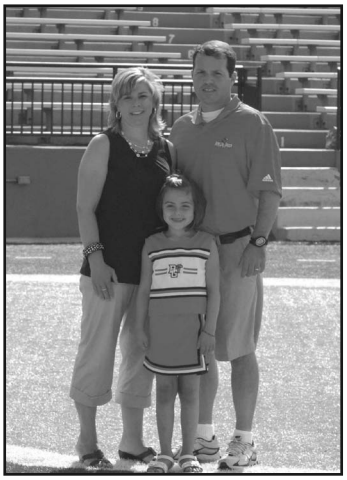

Ruggiero brings 21 years of coaching experience to the Falcons, including two as a head coach and 16 years as an offensive coordinator at some of the best offenses in the country. Under his guidance as a coordinator his offenses have finished in the top 10 statistically on 10 different occasions.

Prior to his time at Kansas State, Ruggiero was already an accomplished offensive coach who spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Elon, where he tutored quarterback Scott Riddle, who was dubbed the 2007 College Sporting News National Freshman of the Year after a monstrous rookie campaign.

Prior to his arrival at Elon, Ruggiero spent the previous six years at Hofstra, serving the first two seasons (2000-01) as the recruiting coordinator/quarterbacks coach and the last four (2002-05) as the offensive coordinator.

Previously, he coached the halfbacks and tight ends at The College of William and Mary during the 1999 campaign.

Prior to going to William & Mary, Ruggiero was the head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Glenville State College for two seasons (1997-98); the quarterbacks coach, running backs coach and offensive coordinator at Clarion University of Pennsylvania for three seasons (1994-96) and a graduate assistant at the University of Delaware for the 1988 campaign.

Mike Elko

Co-Defensive Coordinator/LBs, First Season
Pennsylvania, 1999

Mike Elko begins his first year as the defensive coordinator with the Falcons after holding the same position at Hofstra for the past three seasons.

Elko brings four years of defensive coordinating experience to the Orange and Brown, as well as experience working with BGSU head coach Dave Clawson at Fordham and Richmond.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Elko coached the No. 1 passing defense in the Colonial Athletic Association last season with Hofstra, holding teams to just 136.8 yards per game through the air.

Hofstra's defense ranked first in the CAA and 11th in the FCS in rushing defense, second in the conference and 15th in the country in total defense, and fourth in the CAA and 37th in the FCS in scoring defense in 2007.

In 2006 Elko directed the defensive backs in addition to his defensive coordinator duties. The Pride's defense ranked in the top half of the conference in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and passing defense.

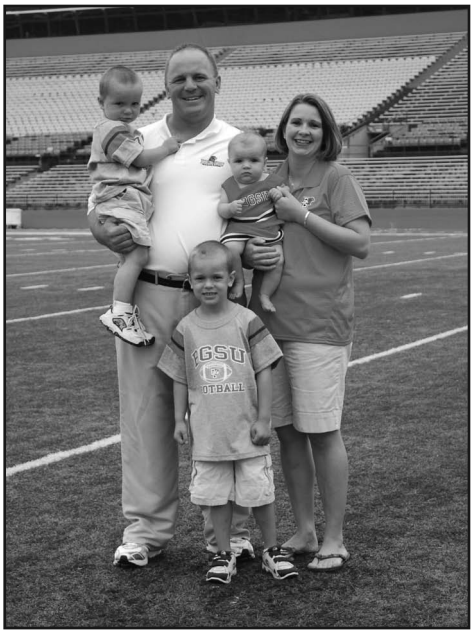

Elko came to Hofstra after two seasons as linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at the University of Richmond. His first recruiting class at Richmond was a large part of the Spiders' 9-4 record, including a 7-1 slate in the Atlantic 10 in 2005. Richmond defeated Hampton, 38-10, in the first round of the I-AA playoffs before dropping a 24-20 decision at Furman.

The Spiders ranked 12th in the FCS in scoring defense, allowing just 17.7 points per game, and 22nd in rushing defense, allowing just 120.1 yards per contest. Before coaching at Richmond, Elko worked with current head football coach Dave Clawson at Fordham University as his linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator in 2002 and 2003. While at Fordham, Elko coached a defense that led the Patriot League in scoring defense (14th nationally in 2002) and sacks, as well as ranking third with 25 turnovers caused in 2002. In 2003 the Rams led the league in pass defense.

Elko's coaching experience also includes time at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, where he served as defensive coordinator. He also coached at his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, directing the secondary. He began his coaching career at Stony Brook in 1999 where he guided the linebackers in the fall and the defensive backs in the spring.

A member of the Penn football team for four years, Elko helped the Quakers win the Ivy League title in 1998. He received a bachelor's degree in history in 1999.

Mike and his wife Michelle, have three children, Michael (5), Andrew (2) and Kaitlyn, who was born in March.

Shannon Morrison

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Secondary, First Season
Marshall, 1995

Shannon Morrison begins his first season with Bowling Green and will serve as the team's co-defensive coordinator as well as the secondary coach.

Morrison has served as a defensive coordinator at two different schools, including a stint at Lehigh, where he helped coach the team to a 2004 Patriot League Championship. That season Lehigh led the league in scoring defense as well as fewest yards allowed.

Morrison also spent three seasons at Southeast Missouri State (2001-03) as the team's defensive coordinator. In 2003 the Indians led the Ohio Valley Conference in pass defense and ranked third in total defense. That same season Southeast Missouri State ranked seventh nationally in turnovers forced.

Morrison spent the past four seasons at Marshall where he coached the linebackers (2005-06) and the safety (2007-08) position. The former MU standout tutored junior safety C.J. Spillman in 2007 as he recorded a team-high 131 tackles en route to earning second-team All-Conference USA honors.

Morrison oversaw a Thundering Herd linebacking corps in 2005 that featured two of Conference USA's top tacklers in juniors Dennis Thornton (104) and Matt Couch (97). The linebacker unit also helped the MU defense limit opponents to a C-USA best 340.27 yards per game. During the 2006 season, Morrison coached linebacker Matt Couch to second-team all-conference honors and linebacker Josh Johnson to honorable mention accolades.

Morrison has also coached at Hampden-Sydney and Sam Houston State.

Mark Carney

Wide Receivers, First Season
Fordham, 2002

Carney, a native of Cleveland, Ohio, brings several years of Ohio recruiting experience to the Orange and Brown. The first year Falcon coach also helped mentor a former Richmond quarterback to NFL status and played under Dave Clawson at Fordham, earning all-league honors as a quarterback in 2001.

This past season Carney coached wide receivers at Richmond, where he helped the Spiders to the FCS National Championship. Under Carney's teaching, Kevin Grayson led the team with 61 receptions and 853 yards. It was Carney's first year coaching the wide receiver position. He spent the previous four years as the Spiders' quarterback coach.

As the coach for the Spider signal callers, Carney oversaw the development of former Spider Stacy Tutt and current quarterback Eric Ward into two of the most productive quarterbacks in school history.

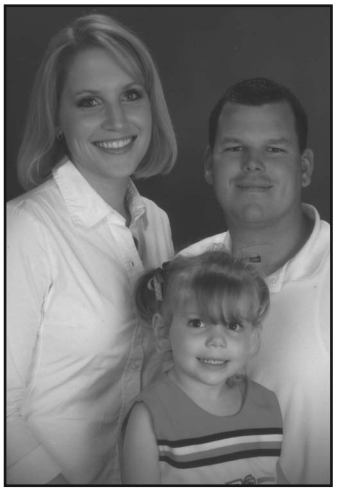

Ward finished his sophomore season with a single-season school record 216 completions for 2,341 passing yards -- the fourth-best single-season mark by a quarterback, surpassing the 2,219 yards thrown by Tutt in 2005.

Tutt was a free-agent signee by the New York Jets in the spring of 2006 and graduated from Richmond as the school's all-time single-season leader in total offense with 3,047 yards (828 rushing, 2,219 passing) and 12 touchdowns.

A standout quarterback who earned All-Patriot League and All-American honors in 2001, Carney spent 2002 and 2003 working with current BGSU head coach Dave Clawson at Carney's alma mater, Fordham. While with the Rams, Carney helped guide Kevin Eakin, a program record-holder, to all-conference honors his final two seasons. Eakin went on to play professionally in the NFL for the N.Y. Jets and Buffalo Bills and for Hamilton in the CFL.

John Hunter

Running Backs/Recruiting, Fourth Season
Bowling Green, 1988

John Hunter will begin his fourth year on the Falcon coaching staff, serving as the team's running backs coach.

Despite constant injuries in the backfield, Hunter helped coach a quartet of tailbacks to average 4.93 yards per carry in 2008, finishing the season with 1,192 yards and nine touchdowns.

In 2007, Hunter's running backs recorded 1,607 yards on the ground, led by former quarterback Anthony Turner (519). True freshman Willie Geter chipped in with 432 yards and Chris Bullock had 281.

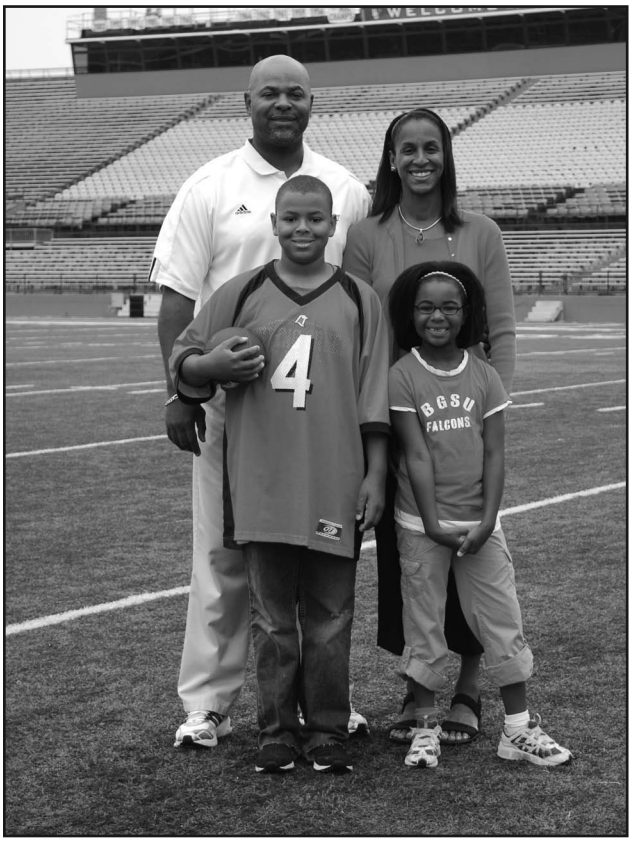

In 2006, he saw the Falcons lead the MAC, averaging 176.6 yards per game, and oversaw the development of freshman All-American Chris Bullock.

From 2000 to 2006, Hunter served as the head football and boys track and field coach at Pershing High School in Detroit. On the gridiron, his teams were 40-28 and made four state playoff appearances in his six years after the school had made just one state playoff appearances in its history prior to his arrival. He led Pershing to two district titles, two regional championship games and one Detroit P.S.L. playoff nod.

Hunter, who graduated from BGSU in 1988, was a four-year starter at linebacker and twice was named first-team All-MAC (1986 and 1987). For his career, he had 336 tackles, including 44 for loss, and was a member of a 1985 MAC Championship team. Following his senior year, he signed a free agent contract with the San Francisco 49ers. Prior to his stint at Pershing High School, Hunter was an assistant coach at St. Martin DePorres in 1989 and from 1994-99. He was the defensive backs coach for a team which won the state championship in 1989 and was defensive coordinator from 1994-99, also winning state titles in 1995 and 1996. As a player, he also played on state title teams at DePorres in 1981 and 1982.

A native of Detroit, he and his wife, Amara, have a son, John (10) and a daughter, Justiss (6).

John McDonell

Offensive Line, First Season
Carroll, 1981

McDonell brings a wealth of knowledge to the Falcons, which includes coaching stints at Purdue, Notre Dame, Washington State and Stanford. He also brings six years of coordinator experience to the Falcons after serving as the WSU offensive coordinator from 1994-2000, including a 1998 Rose Bowl appearance. While at Notre Dame and Purdue, McDonell's recruiting responsibility was Ohio.

He has also coached Brady Quinn, Dustin Keller, Jeff Faine and Ryan Leaf, all first round draft picks in the NFL. He was also responsible for the recruitment of Drew Bledsoe to Washington State. All-in-all, McDonell was responsible for eight NFL draft picks between 2002-07.

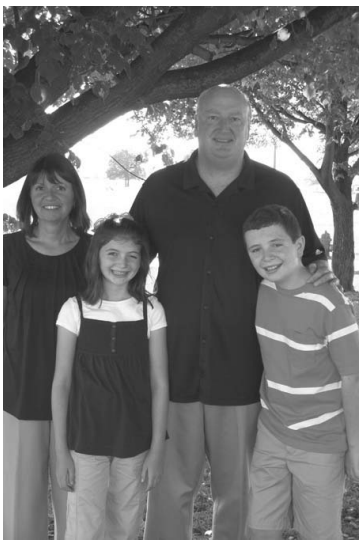

Prior to his time at BGSU, McDonell spent three seasons as the tight ends coach at Purdue. He also coached the offensive tackles in 2006 and 2007.

McDonell came to the Boilermakers from Stanford, where he coached the offensive tackles and tight ends during the 2005 season. He previously served on the Cardinal staff in 2001, coaching the centers and guards. That year, Stanford ranked 23rd nationally in rushing offense - averaging 201 yards per game - and one of McDonell's pupils, guard Eric Heitmann, was named first team All-American. Heitmann and center Zack Quaccia were selected in the NFL draft.

Between his stints at Stanford, McDonell coached the centers and guards at Notre Dame from 2002 to 2004. Five of his players were taken in the NFL draft. Center Jeff Faine was a first team All-American and runner-up for the Rimington Award in 2002 and subsequently a first-round pick (21st overall) of the Cleveland Browns. The Fighting Irish played in the 2003 Gator Bowl and 2004 Insight Bowl.

From 1989 to 2000, McDonell worked at Washington State for head coach Mike Price, where Joe Tiller was on the staff in 1989 and 1990 as offensive coordinator. McDonell coached the offensive line and tight ends from 1989 to 1993, and then was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1994 to 2000. The Cougars ranked second nationally in total offense in 1997 - averaging 502.2 yards per game - while setting Pac-10 season records for points (467, 42.5 per game) and total offense (5,524), winning the conference championship and earning their first Rose Bowl berth in 67 years.

Adam Scheier

Special Teams/TEs, First Season
Dartmouth, 1995

Adam Scheier begins his first year with Bowling Green State University. He will coach the special teams and tight ends for the Orange and Brown.

Scheier, who spent the last seven seasons overseeing the special teams units at Lehigh, was also responsible for the wide receivers position the last four years, in an offensive system much like Coach Clawson will implement for the Falcons. Scheier also spent three seasons as Lehigh's running backs coach.

This past season Lehigh wide receivers finished with the top two spots on the team's reception list, led by Mike Fitzgerald, who had 51 catches, including 11 touchdowns.

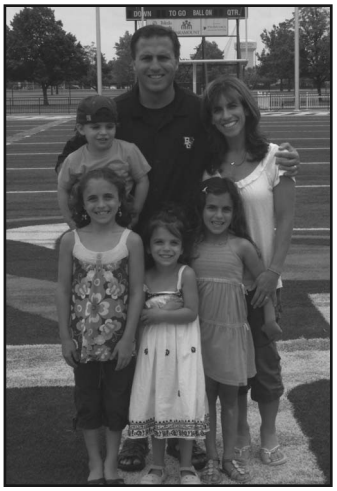

In 2007, the Mountain Hawk receivers helped Lehigh average over 200 receiving yards per game, while seven players hauled in a touchdown reception, and seven different receivers caught at least ten passes. 2005's receiving corps – under the direction of Scheier for the first time – was one of Lehigh's best in recent memory. Four players amassed over 300 receiving yards, and 11 different players caught a touchdown pass.

The special teams units have been consistently productive under the direction of Scheier. In 2008, kicker Jason Leo connected on 8-of-13 field goal attempts, while averaging 43.0 yards per punt. Lehigh's punt unit finished both the 2008 and 2007 seasons ranked third in the nation in net punting. During his career, Leo became one of 10 football players in league history to earn four consecutive all-league honors. Leo's recognition marked the ninth straight year as a special teams coordinator that Scheier has mentored a kicker or punter to all-league status, a group that includes three All-American nods. In addition, Lehigh's kickoff return unit has led the league and ranked in the top 15 nationally three times in the last four years and Scheier has coached punt return units to top 15 finishes three times in his years as a coordinator.

Scheier came to Lehigh after spending two years at Princeton as the special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach. Prior to his stint at Princeton, Scheier spent three years as an assistant at Columbia, coaching the strong safeties and outside linebackers. He began his coaching career at Dartmouth, assisting with the secondary in 1996 after earning four varsity letters as a free safety for the Big Green and being awarded the special teams player of the year award as a senior.

Scheier earned a bachelor degree in psychology at Dartmouth and a masters in education at Columbia. Scheier and his wife Erica have three daughters, Callie (8), Riley (7), and Madeline (5), and one son, Brady (3).

Sean Spencer

Defensive Line, First Season
Clarion, 1995

Sean Spencer will begin his first season at Bowling Green where he will be the defensive tackles coach as well as the special teams coordinator.

Spencer brings eight years of defensive line coaching experience to the Falcons. He was also the special teams coordinator at UMass in 2007 and 2008.

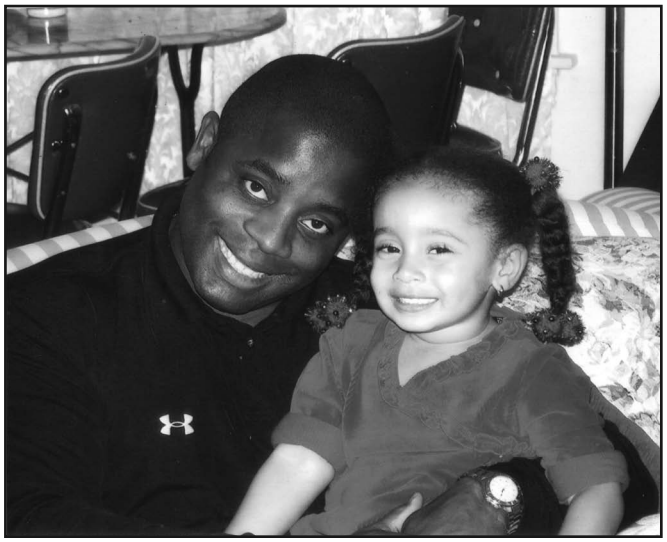

Along with his special teams duties, Spencer also coached the defensive line for the past two seasons for the Minutemen.

Spencer spent the 2006 season at Hofstra University where he was the defensive line coach for the Pride. He also served as the team's NFL liaison in addition to his coaching duties. That summer, Spencer took part in an NFL summer internship with the New York Jets.

Prior to Hofstra, Spencer served as linebackers coach at Villanova University in 2005 where he coached first team all-conference selection Brian Hulea.

Spencer also spent one season at the College of Holy Cross where he served as defensive line coach in 2004. Before his stint at Holy Cross, Spencer served as the defensive line coach at UMass from 2001 through 2003. In his final season in Amherst, the Minutemen finished second in the Atlantic 10 in sacks with 34. Under Spencer's tutelage, three linemen earned all conference honors including Minutemen defensive standout Vladamar Brower, who earned All-America honors and was a Buck Buchanan Award finalist. During his first season, Spencer helped UMass to rank sixth in the league with 26 sacks.

Stan Watson

Cornerbacks, First Season
Mt. Union, 2003

Stan Watson begins his first year as the cornerbacks coach for the Bowling Green State University football team. Watson spent the past season as a graduate assistant with BGSU before being promoted this July.

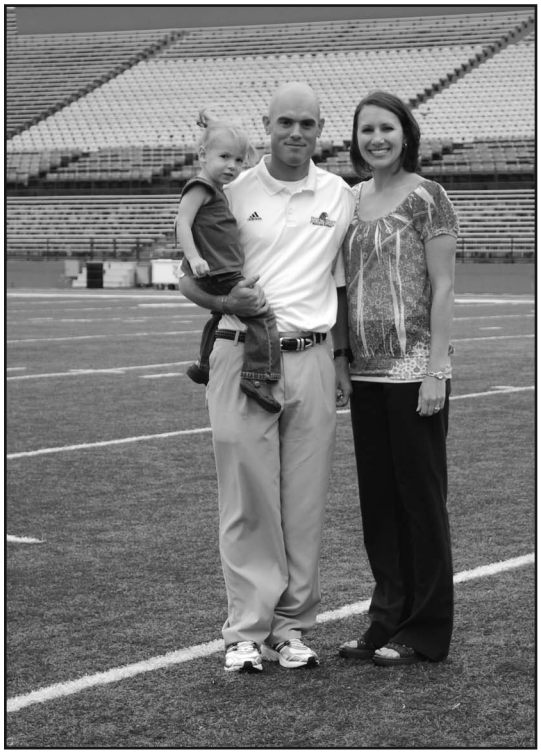

As a graduate assistant Watson's duties included, helping with the coaching of the Falcon secondary, where BGSU finished 24th in the country and second in the MAC in passing yards allowed.

Prior to arriving at Bowling Green, Watson spent three years at Emory and Henry College, where he was the defensive coordinator for all three years. He was also responsible for the secondary in 2007 and the linebackers in 2005-2006.

Watson also coached at Mt. Union, his Alma Mater. In 2003 he coached the linebackers and a year later he was responsible for the defensive line.

Prior to his coaching career, Watson attended Mt. Union College, where his team won the National Championship in four of his five years (1998, 2000, 2001, 2002) in which he was enrolled at the school. He was a three-time all-conference first-team selection at outside linebacker, earning All-American status in 2002 by the Football Gazette and Hewlett Packard.

Aaron Hillmann

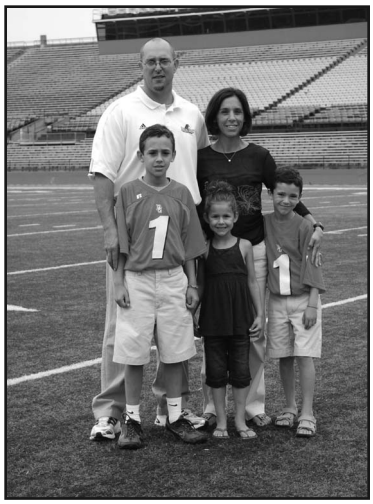

Strength & Conditioning
Ninth Season

Aaron Hillmann is in his eighth year with the Falcons. Hillmann directs strength and conditioning for the Falcons' 18-sport athletic program.

Prior to coming to Bowling Green, Hillmann had been the assistant coordinator of strength and conditioning at Notre Dame from 1998 to 2001. Hillmann went to Notre Dame after serving as the football strength and conditioning coach at Connecticut from 1996-1998. He also has served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Cincinnati (1995-96) and Ball State (1992-96). Hillmann also has spent time as a strength and conditioning specialist for the Pittsburgh Steelers (summer, 1994), assisting in the supervision of their preseason strength and conditioning program.

A native of St. Louis, Hillmann earned his bachelor of science degree in secondary education from Missouri in 1991. He and his wife, Dina, have two sons, Jacob and Jonah, and a daughter, Skylar.

Doug Boersma

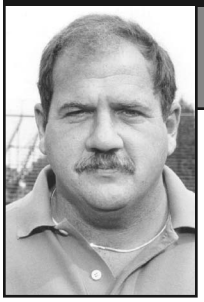

Director of Athletic Training
Seventh Season

Doug Boersma is in his seventh season as the director of athletic training for the Falcons' 18-sport intercollegiate athletic program. Boersma came to BGSU in the summer of 2003 after serving as an assistant athletic trainer at Notre Dame since August 1999. Boersma oversees a staff of 20 which includes full-time certified athletic trainers, graduate assistants and student athletic trainers.

At Notre Dame, Boersma worked closely with the Irish football program and oversaw the day-to-day training needs of the men's ice hockey program as well as men's soccer and lacrosse during his four years. He also gained experience as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Kentucky and as a student athletic trainer at Purdue. At UK, Boersma worked directly with the football and women's gymnastics programs. At Purdue, the Highland, Ind., native worked with the men's basketball, football, baseball and women's tennis teams.

Boersma earned his degree in athletic training from Purdue in 1997 and also earned his master's degree in health promotion from Kentucky in 1999. The 31-year old native of Highland, Ind., and his wife, Cari, have two daughters, McKenna, born in December of 2002, and Ashlyn who was born in January of 2005.

Joe Sharp

Equipment Manager
29th Season

Joe Sharp continues a 50-year family relationship with the BGSU athletic department and has served as the Equipment Manager for the Falcon football team since 1981. In addition to working with football, Sharp is responsible for outfitting the men's basketball, women's basketball, track, and volleyball programs. He took over the job his father, Glenn, had held since 1956. The elder Sharp, one of the most beloved figures associated with BGSU athletics, passed away in October, 2000. Joe, a lifelong Bowling Green resident, is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. After attending the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, he earned his bachelor's degree from BGSU in Earth Science in 1980. He and his wife, Shelly, have two children, Tyler and Evan.

Annette Davidson

Assistant Athletic Trainer
Sixth Season With Football

Assistant athletic trainer Annette Davidson is responsible for the supervision, care, prevention, and rehabilitation of athletic injuries for the Falcon football, softball, and men and women's cross country teams. She also over sees the graduate assistant at men's soccer and women's track. While at BGSU Annette has worked with women's basketball, volleyball, soccer, track and gymnastics teams, and the men's soccer team. She is the Coordinator of the Wellness Committee for Student Athletes, and a member of the Positive Image Committee that educates the campus community about size diversity, body esteem, and health. Annette is the liaison to the curriculum department for the athletic training students and manages the students in the curriculum program.

Davidson was invited to work as an athletic trainer at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colorado. She was also a member of the Olympic Sports Medicine Team, serving as an athletic trainer for the USA Track and Field Team at the Goodwill Games in New York City. As an undergraduate at BGSU she majored in health and physical education K-12. She still holds her certification in teaching. While receiving her masters degree she served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the men's baseball and soccer teams, and the Ballet Program at the University of Akron.

A native of North Canton, Ohio and a graduate of BGSU, Davidson is certified by the National Athletic Trainers' Association and licensed by the Ohio Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, and Athletic Trainers Board. Davidson earned a Masters of Science degree in Education from The University of Akron. She and her husband, Ray Novak, reside in Bowling Green.

Mark Shook

Student-Athlete Services
Fourth Season

Mark Shook, a native of Rittman, Ohio and a BGSU graduate, began his career at BGSU after four years in the Division of Athletics at Purdue University. He began his collegiate administrative career in August of 2002 as Academic Support Services Advisor and by the summer of 2005 was named an Associate Director of the office. Shook was the lead academic advisor for the Boilermakers' football student-athletes, and also served that role for men's basketball as well as for numerous Olympic sports during his tenure. He also held various other administrative and committee assignments while at Purdue.

Shook is the Director of the Office of Student-Athlete Services and oversees a staff of six who serve the academic support needs of Bowling Green's 400+ student-athletes. He also serves as the Sport Administrator for Women's Tennis and is responsible for the supervision, evaluation and overall management of the program. His other main duties include the administration of the Falcon Intern Program as well as coordination of the Annual Athletics Honors Night held each spring.

Shook serves on the Leadership Advisory Board at BGSU and has served on the New Professionals Leadership Institute advisory committee and Student Money Management Team as well. In addition, he serves as an instructor for the Student-Athlete Leadership Course developed in the spring of 2007. This course, offered only for student-athletes, enhances their effectiveness as student leaders through a leadership practices inventory and the study of various leadership styles to assist them in developing their own leadership potential as well as defining their own philosophy on leadership.

In July of 2006, Shook received the Professional Promise Award for Region III from the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A). The award honors professionals serving student-athletes who have shown extraordinary service to the N4A at the regional and/or national level; and outstanding performance as an academic advisor, life skills coordinator and/or administrator. Prior to his tenure at Purdue, Shook spent a year as an academic mentor in the Student-Athlete Support Services Office at the Ohio State University.

Shook spent nearly a decade as a high-school teacher and coach in Ohio, in Lexington, Orrville and Creston. Shook was at Orrville from 1992-95 before spending the next seven years at Lexington. He was the head baseball coach at Lexington from 1997-2000, and also was an assistant football coach. At Orrville, he coached baseball, football and girls basketball. Shook earned a Bachelor of Science degree in secondary education from BGSU in 1992. He received a Master's of Education degree in Sport Education from Ashland University in 2001.

Video Coordinator First Season

He previously had spent two years as the video coordinator for Western Kentucky's football team. In that role, he and his student assistant staff were responsible for filming and editing practices and games, handling the program's XOS video editing system, maintaining all video equipment, and exchanging video with the Toppers' future opponents.

Prior to coming to the Hill, Zuccaro worked with video at a pair of NCAA Division I-A (Football Bowl Subdivision) schools, gaining experience at both Mississippi and Southern Mississippi before earning his bachelor's degree from the latter school in 2006.

At USM, Zuccaro filmed and edited games and practices, prepared his coaches' video cut-ups, processed opponent film and was responsible for media equipment at road games and bowls. He also helped coordinate the Sports Video Department's coverage assignments for all programs.

Zuccaro assisted in filming game and practice and was responsible for media equipment at road contests and bowl games while at Ole Miss as well.

OPPONENT INFORMATION • MAC

Since its inception in 1946, the Mid-American Conference has progressively grown and developed into one of the most aggressive Division I conferences in the country. One of only 11 football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) conferences, the MAC named Dr. Jon Steinbrecher as its eighth commissioner in the 63-year history of the league this past March. Steinbrecher came to the MAC after serving for six years as the commissioner of the Ohio Valley Conference.

The league has grown its commitment to championships by expanding to six its number of neutral site post season events – football (Detroit's Ford Field), volleyball (Toledo's SeaGate Centre), men's and women's basketball (Cleveland's Quicken Loans Arena), softball (Akron's Firestone Stadium) and most recently baseball (Chillicothe's VA Memorial Stadium).

The MAC tied a league record in 2008 with five schools participating in bowl games – Buffalo (International); Ball State (GMAC); Central Michigan (Motor City); Western Michigan (Texas); and Northern Illinois (Independence Bowl). The 2008 season also saw the first MAC football team ranked in the Top 25 since 2003. Ball State was ranked as high as 12th in the BCS Standings, 12th in the AP and 13th in the USA Today Poll. The Cardinals were ranked in all three polls for 10 straight weeks. MAC football teams won a league record four games versus opponents from the Big Ten. Toledo became the first MAC team to ever beat Michigan in Ann Arbor; Ball State won its first-ever game against a Big Ten foe when the Cardinals beat Indiana; Central Michigan also defeated Indiana; and Western Michigan beat Illinois in a game played at Ford Field.

In its partnership with ESPN, the MAC signed an eight-year rights agreement through the 2016-2017 academic year for football, as well as men's and women's basketball. The deal will be the most extensive in the 63-year history of the conference. The new deal calls for a minimum of 25 events annually to be produced and aired on an ESPN platform including the men's and women's basketball championships, a regular-season MAC presence on ESPN, the Marathon MAC Football Championship and a minimum of 11 regular-season football games.

Women's athletics shined for the MAC this past year. For the first time in the history of the conference the MAC sent three teams to the NCAA women's volleyball tournament (Miami, Ohio and Western Michigan). Western Michigan became only the third team to make it to the Sweet Sixteen (Ohio 2005 and Western Michigan 1983). In women's basketball MAC Tournament Champion Ball State upset perennial national power Tennessee in the first round of the NCAA tournament handing the Lady Vols their first ever loss in the opening round of the NCAA tournament. The victory was named "Pontiac Game Changing Performance" of the 2009 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament, while first year head coach Kelly Packard was named Maggie Dixon Division I Rookie Coach of the Year by the WBCA.

Akron continued its dominance of MAC men's soccer with its 11 regular-season championship to go along with its sixth MAC Tournament title – both league records. The Zips were ranked as high as No. 2 during the season and reached the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament before falling to Northwestern, 1-0. Steve Zakuani, who helped guide the University of Akron men's soccer program to a record-setting campaign in 2008, was the first overall pick of the 2009 Major League Soccer Super Draft. Zakuani earned 2008 MAC Men's Soccer Player of the Year honors and was a finalist for the Hermann Trophy, which goes to the best men's soccer player in the country.

The conference now has national leadership positions on the following NCAA committees: Warde Manual, Buffalo (Academic Cabinet); Susan Lipnickey, Miami (Leadership Council and Infractions Appeals); Derrick Gragg, Eastern Michigan (Legislative Council); Dr. John Peters, Northern Illinois (Board of Directors); Tom Collins, Ball State (Amateurism Cabinet); Kelly Andrews, Toledo (Awards, benefits, Expenses & Financial Aid Cabinet); Stephannnie Harvey-Vandenburg, Eastern Michigan (Recruiting & Athletic Personal Issues Cabinet); Brad Bates, Miami (Academic Performance); Eileen Jennings, Central Michigan (Infractions); Ted McKown, Kent State (International Students Records); Jim Klein, Toledo (Legislative Review & Interpretations); Karin Lee, Ball State (Minority Opportunities and Interest); Melody Reifel Werner, Eastern Michigan (Research); Catharine Marsszeky, Kent State (Student-Athlete Advisory); Lee Merserve, Bowling Green (Walter Byers Scholarship).

The MAC also has representation on Division I Sport Committees and related governing groups: Cathy O'Donnell, Kent State (Field Hockey); Dave Heeke, Central Michigan (Football Issues); Marling "Newt" Engle, Akron (Rifle); Karin Lee, Ball State (Tennis); Rich Ceronie (Track & Field); Laing Kennedy, Kent State (Men's Basketball); Charlie Coles, Miami (Men's Basketball Issues); Jim Schaus, Ohio and Reggie Witherspoon, Buffalo (Men's Basketball Rules); Steven Cady, Miami (Men's Ice Hockey); Mary Lu Gribschaw, Akron (Men's Soccer); Greg Christopher, Bowling Green (Women's Basketball); Anucha Brown-Sanders, Buffalo and Donyale Canada, MAC (Women's Basketball Issues); Curt Miller, Bowling Green (Women's Basketball Rules); Jerry Reighard, Central Michigan (Gymnastics); Matt Wolfert, Ball State (Women's Soccer); Dee Abrahamson, Northern Illinois (Women's Softball Rules); Derek van der Merwe, Central Michigan (Wrestling).

From two-time Super Bowl quarterback winning Ben Roethlisberger (Miami University), NFL Defensive MVP James Harrison (Kent State University), British Open winner Ben Curtis (Kent State University), World Series winning manager Bob Brenly (Ohio University) and Olympic bobsled team member Brock Kreitzburgh (University of Toledo), the Mid-American Conference continues to excel in producing leaders in the world of athletics.

History of the MAC

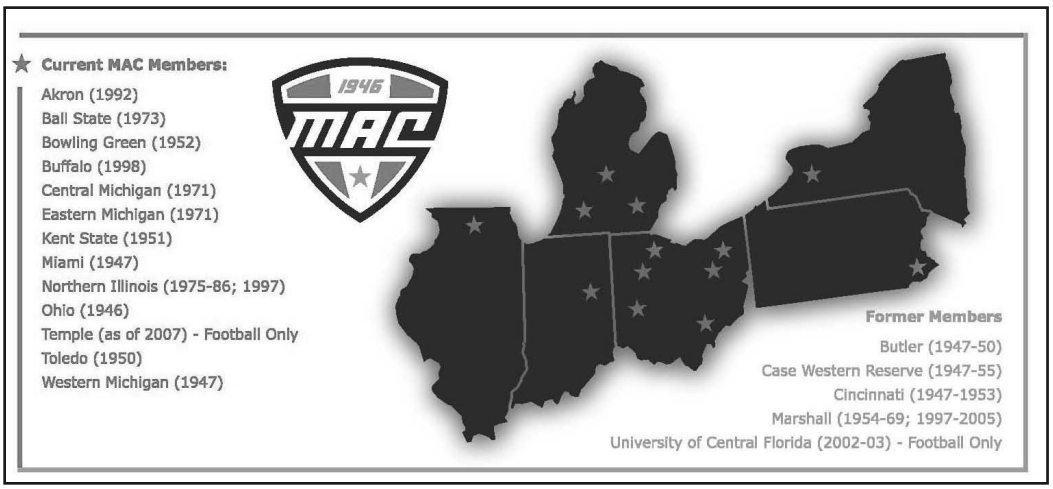

Based in Cleveland since July 1999 following a 15-year stay in Toledo, Ohio, the MAC has established historic measurements in both football and men's and women's basketball since moving to Northeast Ohio.

The Mid-American Conference was founded as a five-school league on February 24, 1946 in Columbus, Ohio with Ohio, Butler, Cincinnati, Wayne State and Western Reserve admitted as charter members. The Mid-American Conference has 12 full-time schools and a 13th, Temple, for football only. Comprising the East Division is the University of Akron (joined in 1992), Bowling Green State University (1952), University at Buffalo (1998), Kent State University (1951), Miami University (1947), Ohio University (1946) and Temple University (2007). The West Division members are Ball State University (1973), Central Michigan University (1971), Eastern Michigan University (1971), Northern Illinois University (1975-86, 1997), University of Toledo (1950) and Western Michigan University (1947).

In 1946 men's basketball was the first competitive sport in the MAC, which now sponsors a total 23 sports. Women's sports were brought into the conference's structure in 1980.

For men, championships (11) are sponsored in football, basketball, baseball, cross country, soccer, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, wrestling, golf and tennis.

For women, championships (12) are sponsored in basketball, softball, volleyball, cross country, field hockey, golf, soccer, swimming and diving, gymnastics, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and tennis.

MOTOR CITY BOWL

The Motor City Bowl will feature teams from the Mid-American Conference and the Big Ten.

In 2003, BGSU defeated Northwestern 28-24, in the first ever post-season meeting between the two conferences.

Under the direction of former Michigan State University head football coach George Perles, the Motor City Bowl has teamed with the MAC since the Bowl's inception in 1997 to feature some of the nation's top players in a highly competitive postseason environment.

Perles, the bowl's Chief Executive Officer, and Ken Hoffman, Executive Director, have secured sponsorship from the Big Three Automakers – Ford, Daimler Chrysler and General Motors.

The MAC and the Motor City Bowl have a perpetual contract assuring the conference and the Bowl of an affiliation for as long as the bowl and the conference both exist.

Played at Ford Field, also home of the National Football League's Detroit Lions, the Motor City Bowl is easily accessible to MAC fans and alumni.

GMAC BOWL

With 2009 marking its 12th season, the GMAC Bowl has an agreement with the Mid-American Conference to provide a team from the league to face the No. 2 choice from Conference USA in the annual post-season holiday bowl game.

In 2004, BGSU defeated Memphis, 52-35 in the Falcons' first visit to Mobile.

The inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl in 1999 featured TCU stopping East Carolina 28-14. In the 2000 contest had the Horned Frogs dropping a 28-21 decision to Southern Miss before a capacity crowd of 40,600. In 2001, Marshall rallied from a 30-point deficit to edge East Carolina, 64-61 in double overtime in the highest scoring game in bowl history.

BG - Turner 8 yd run (Vrvilo kick blocked) 3:53, 3rd
BG - Sheehan 11 yd run (Vrvilo kick) 11:59, 4th

Tyler Sheehan ran 11 yards for a touchdown on a quarterback draw early in the fourth quarter, two plays after Pittsburgh's fourth turnover, and Bowling Green rallied for a 27-17 upset of the No. 25 Panthers.

The Falcons, scoring their second win over a BCS conference school in as many season openers, bounced back from a 14-0 deficit for the first victory by a Mid-American Conference school in Pittsburgh. Pitt previously was 25-2 against the MAC, 8-0 in season openers and 24-0 at home.

Anthony Turner scored on an 8-yard run set up by quarterback Sheehan's 22-yard completion to fullback Jimmy Scheidler, who earlier scored two touchdowns, to give Bowling Green its first lead at 20-17 with 3:53 left in the third quarter.

Bowling Green was outgained 393-254 but still beat a Top 25 team for the first time since the then-No. 23 Falcons beat No. 12 Northern Illinois 34-18 on Oct. 21, 2003. They beat Minnesota 32-31 in their opener last season.

Minnesota's Adam Weber threw three touchdown passes and made a nifty grab of his own in the fourth quarter to help Minnesota beat Bowling Green 42-17.

Weber leaped high to grab an errant snap, spun around and flung a 14-yard pass to Ben Kuznia, keeping a drive alive.

Five plays later, Weber threw a 28-yard touchdown pass to the diving Eric Decker that put Minnesota ahead 28-17 with 10:41 left in the game.

The Gophers then turned a pair of Bowling Green turnovers into two touchdowns, sealing the victory.

Sheehan threw for 261 yards and the Falcons used multiple formations and three quarterbacks to confuse the Gophers.

Turner ran four times for 24 yards, the last a 1-yard touchdown run that tied it at 7-7 with 9:06 left in the half.

BSU - Johnson 6 yd run (Brotzman kick) 3:00 - 2nd
BGSU - Scheidler 4 yd pass from Barnes (Vrillo kick) 11:10 - 4th

Ian Johnson rushed for 97 yards, scored two touchdowns and the Boise State defense did the rest en route to a 20-7 victory over Bowling Green.

The Broncos got off to an early start, scoring three touchdowns in the first half.

In the second half, Bowling Green controlled the ball, but failed until the fourth quarter to put points on the board. The Falcons dominated time of possession, keeping the ball for 34:35 compared to 25:25 for Boise State.

The Falcons finally snapped the drought early in the fourth quarter, scoring with the help of some trickery on fourth down. On fourth-and-goal from the 4-yard line, receiver Freddy Barnes caught a pitch in the backfield then found a wide open Jimmy Scheidler in the end zone.

Tyler Sheehan passed for two touchdowns and ran for another in leading Bowling Green over Wyoming 45-16 Saturday.

Chris Bullock added two rushing touchdowns for Bowling Green, which won its first game over a Mountain West Conference team since 1989.

Sheehan completed 22 passes for 287 yards. He tossed a 34-yard TD pass to Corey Partridge and a 20-yarder to Marques Parks, and scored on a 28-yard run.

Bullock scored on a pair of 6-yard runs.

Andy Schmitt hit Tyler Jones on a 16-yard touchdown pass with 36 seconds left to push Eastern Michigan past Bowling Green 24-21.

The Falcons had taken a 21-17 lead on Tyler Sheehan's 8-yard run with 5:11 left.

Jones' catch from Schmitt capped a six-play, 77-yard drive that took just 45 seconds.

Schmitt completed 21-of-29 passes for 253 yards. Sheehan hit on 27-of-34 passes for 297 yards and touchdowns covering six yards to Jimmy Scheidler and 46 yards to Adrian Hodges.

J.R. Taylor rushed for 127 yards, including a 5-yard touchdown run in the game's final minutes that gave Miami a 27-20 win over Bowling Green on Saturday.

The RedHawks (2-5, 1-2 Mid-American Conference) jumped out to a 14-3 second quarter lead on a 53-yard touchdown pass from Clay Belton to Chris Givens.

Two Tyler Sheehan touchdown throws and a field goal put Bowling Green (3-4, 1-2) ahead 20-14 in the third.

Miami's Nathan Parseghian hit two field goals to tie it by the start of the fourth and the RedHawks later went on a 10-play, 75-yard drive that ended in Taylor's score with 2:35 remaining.

Sheehan completed 21-of-34 passes for 224 yards and an interception. Anthony Turner caught seven passes for 88 yards and Corey Partridge had six catches for 73 yards for the Falcons, including a 29-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

Junior Mike Salerno kicked a 30-yard field goal with 12 seconds to play to lift Northern Illinois to a 16-13 victory over Bowling Green.

Salerno converted on three of four field goal tries for the day as the Huskies (5-3, 4-1 Mid-American) won their third straight and fifth in their last six games.

The Falcons (3-5, 1-3 Mid-American) led 13-10 late in the third quarter following an 18-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Tyler Sheehan to wide receiver Marques Parks.

Salerno forced a 13-13 tie with 8:08 left in regulation with a 25-yard field goal. He got his final chance when defender Landon Cox blocked Nick Iovinelli's punt and set up the Huskies at the Falcon 37 with 4:51 to play.

Northern Illinois chewed up more than four minutes and advanced 24 yards in seven plays to set up Salerno's game-winning try.

Chandler Harnish rushed 19 times for 116 yards to become the first Huskie quarterback with 100 or more rushing yards since 1990. Tailback Me'co Brown added 95 yards on 20 carries.

Sheehan was 15-of-21 for 92 yards while Corey Partridge caught six passes for 21 yards. Tailback Anthony Turner rushed 10 times for a team-high 39 yards.

Bowling Green kicker Sinisa Vrvilo hit two first-half field goals of 29 and 20 yards as the Falcons opened a 6-3 halftime lead.

Tyler Sheehan threw two touchdown passes and ran for another for Bowling Green as the Falcons held off Kent State's second half surge to win 45-30.

Anthony Turner's 11-yard run combined with Sheehan's touchdown passes to Corey Partridge and Jimmy Scheidler helped Bowling Green (4-5, 2-3 Mid-American) jump out to a 28-0 halftime lead.

But Kent State (2-7, 1-4) quarterback Julian Edelman threw for a touchdown, then ran for two more to get the Golden Flashes close with just more than five minutes left.

Jason Rice's 33-yard run a minute later for Bowling Green made it 45-23. Edelman threw his second touchdown pass on Kent State's next drive, but the Golden Flashes couldn't score again.

Edelman ran for 170 yards and was 16-of-31 in passing for 219 yards and two interceptions. Kent State's Eugene Jarvis added 94 yards on the ground.

Chris Wright caught seven passes for 96 yards for the Falcons.

Tyler Sheehan threw two touchdown passes and caught another one as Bowling Green cruised to a 28-3 win over Ohio.

Sheehan caught a 22-yarder from backup quarterback Andrew Beam in the second quarter to put the Falcons (5-5, 3-3 Mid-American) up 14-0.

Ohio (2-8, 1-5) opened the second half with a 10-play, 68-yard drive that included a 41-yard pass to LaVon Brazill and resulted in a field goal.

But Beam scored on a two-yard quarterback keeper on Bowling Green's next series, and linebacker John Haneline's interception a few plays later set up another Falcon touchdown--a four-yard pass from Sheehan to Marques Parks--that made it 28-3.

The Bobcats twice drove to within Bowling Green's 25, but couldn't score again.

Sheehan was 22-of-29 for 207 yards, while Ohio quarterbacks Boo Jackson and Brandon Jones combined to throw 13-of-30 passes for 188 yards. Jackson threw two interceptions.

Drew Willy threw two late touchdown passes to tie it and James Starks ran 25 yards for the winning score in double overtime to give Buffalo a 40-34 win over Bowling Green.

Starks and Willy led the Bulls (7-4, 5-2 Mid-American) back from a 27-7 fourth quarter deficit, with Starks scoring on a 12-yard run early in the period. Willy threw a four-yard touchdown pass to Brett Hamlin with 2:29 to play and then a five-yard TD pass to Naam Roosevelt with 37 seconds on the clock to send it into overtime.

Willy and Hamlin hooked up again on Buffalo's first overtime possession for a 26-yard score. Bowling Green's Tyler Sheehan tossed a 23-yard TD to Corey Partridge on the Falcons' next drive, but couldn't score on their ensuing drive, setting up Starks' winning score.

Willy was 29-for-41 for 297 yards and one interception and Roosevelt caught 10 passes for 188 yards.

Sheehan ran for two touchdowns and was 24-for-32 for 240 yards and one interception, while Freddie Barnes caught 10 passes for 107 yards for the Falcons (5-6, 3-4).

Tyler Sheehan threw three touchdown passes as Bowling Green easily beat Toledo 38-10, spoiling coach Tom Amstutz's last game with the Rockets.

Willie Geter ran for 160 yards for the Falcons (6-6, 4-4 Mid-American), including a 70-yard touchdown run in the third that made it 31-3.

Sheehan was 20-of-33 for 241 yards and an interception while leading an offensive attack that piled up 534 yards. He had a 17-yard TD pass to Tyrone Pronty in the first quarter, a 33-yard touchdown pass to Jermiah Kelley in the third and a six-yard score to Corey Partridge in the fourth.

Toledo (3-9, 2-6) didn't get a touchdown until midway through the fourth, when quarterback Aaron Opelt ran in from two yards out.

Morgan Williams had 153 yards, including a 65-yard run, but the Rockets couldn't do much else when they had the ball, gaining just 196 offensive yards.

Amstutz announced earlier this month that he would resign at the end of the season.

He led Toledo to two Mid-American Conference titles in eight seasons and four bowl games in his first five years. But Toledo suffered its third straight losing season this year, despite a big win over Michigan last month.

BGSU HISTORY

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

Scott Mruczkowski and Mike Thaler celebrate the Falcons' 28-24 Motor City Bowl win over Northwestern in 2003. It marked the first-time in MAC history that a league school ever faced a Big Ten opponent in the post-season.

Since Frederick G. Beyerman, an instructor in the physical education department and the first athletic director, announced in July, 1919 that Bowling Green State Normal College would field an intercollegiate football team, a rich tradition has developed.

From that very first team, to the first squad to go unbeaten in 1928, to the first perfect record of the 1959 national college division champions, to, most recently, back-to-back seasons of nationally ranked division IA football.

From former head coach Warren Steller, to Max Minnich, the first BGSU player to be drafted by a professional team, to Fred Durig, the first All-America selection, to legendary head coach Doyt Perry, to Paul Miles, the only football player ever to have his jersey retired, to Dave Preston, the career rushing leader, to record-setting quarterback Brian McClure, to head coach Dave Clawson, the Bowling Green State University football program has a tradition as rich as any in the Mid-American Conference, and many programs nationally.

Since 19 of the 30 males enrolled at Normal College banded together to form that first team, many different people, players, and games have combined to mold the lore of football at BGSU.

The following paragraphs will touch on many of the people and games which carved the Falcon football history.

The program got off to a rocky start losing its first seven games played.

Franklin Skibbie scored the first touchdown with BG's only points in the 10-6 loss to Findlay in the 1920 season opener.

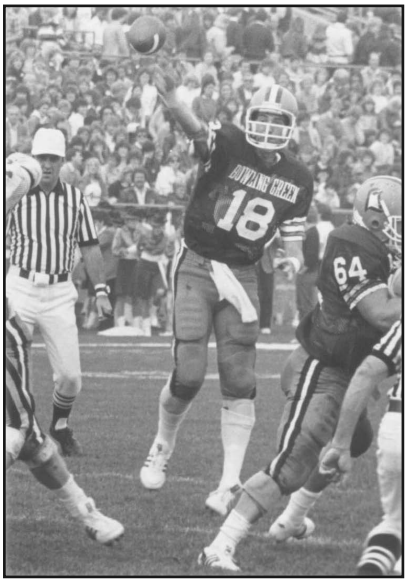

That team would post a 7-0 win over Kent State Normal College (Kent State) in the season finale to record the first win.

The 1921 squad was the first to win a conference title capturing the Northwest Conference championship with wins over Defiance, Findlay, and Toledo. BG posted a shutout of Findlay, scoring a school-record 151 points in one of the most talked-about games in school history. In the season opener against Kent State, played behind what is now Ridge Street School, the Falcons played possibly the quietest game in school history when all fans were prohibited from making noise because of an illness in the neighborhood.

The following season, BG held its first homecoming game on Nov. 4, 1922, which was played at the Fairgrounds. Bowling Green and Toledo battled to a 6-6 deadlock.

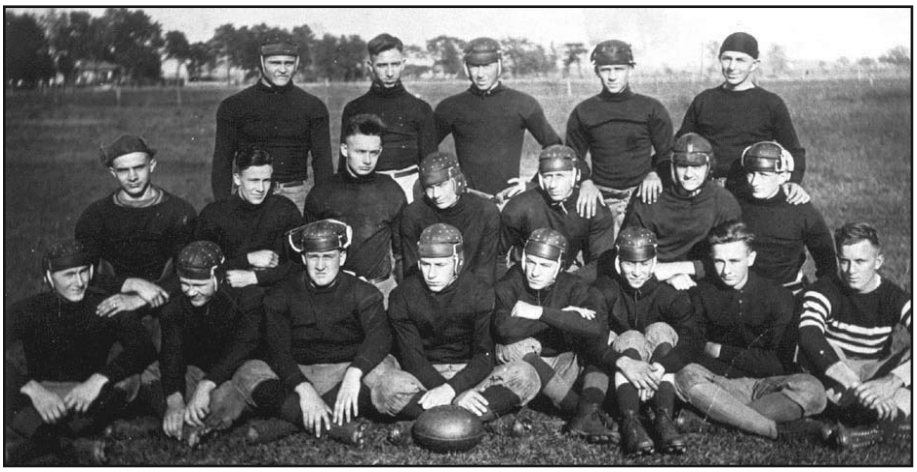

After having a different coach in each of its first five seasons, Warren Steller was selected to coach the 1924 squad, the beginning of a very successful 11-year tenure, the second-longest in school history. Steller was the first BGSU head coach to have an assistant when Paul Landis was hired in 1925.

Led by Chet Chapman, the first BG player to earn first team All-Ohio honors, the 1928 team posted the first unbeaten record while allowing just 18 points in seven games.

Brian McClure is one of only two players in MAC history (both from BG) to earn league MVP honors twice.

In 1936, the federal government offered to help Bowling Green financially in the construction of a new football stadium and the Trustees accepted the offer. University Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 23, 1937 and served as the home of Falcon football until 1966 when Doyt L. Perry Stadium was built. University Stadium was located in what is now the center of campus directly west of Jerome Library.

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

Urban Meyer served as head coach for the Falcons in 2001 and 2002 and guided BGSU to a 17-6 record and a No. 16 ranking in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll in 2002.

In 1941, Robert Whittaker was named the head coach at Bowling Green after compiling an 11-year record of 89-19-2 at Sandusky High School. Whittaker's first of his 14 teams (the longest tenure in school history) tied Case Western Reserve for the Ohio Conference title and was thought to be one of the best teams ever, scoring 173 while allowing just 40.

After back-to-back losing seasons in 1953 and 1954, Doyt Perry began his legendary career as the Falcon head coach in 1955 and made an immediate impact. BG posted a 7-1-1 record, scoring 224 points while allowing only 53. This came on the heels of a 2-7 record the previous season.

Perry, whose teams never lost more than two games in any of his 10 seasons, led his 1959 squad to the first perfect record in school history at 9-0-0. In the process, the Falcons were named the mythical small college national champions by the Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club.

BG's closest game that season was a Mid-American Conference victory at Ohio University by a 13-9 count to wrap up the perfect season and national honor.

The following season, BG came within one game of repeating as national champions losing only a 14-7 decision to OU at home as the Bobcats claimed top national honors.

In 1961, Bowling Green played in its first bowl game, the Mercy Bowl at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The game against Fresno State was played to raise money to help defray the expenses of the families of 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team who perished in a plane crash shortly after takeoff from Toledo Express Airport after a 1960 game against BG.

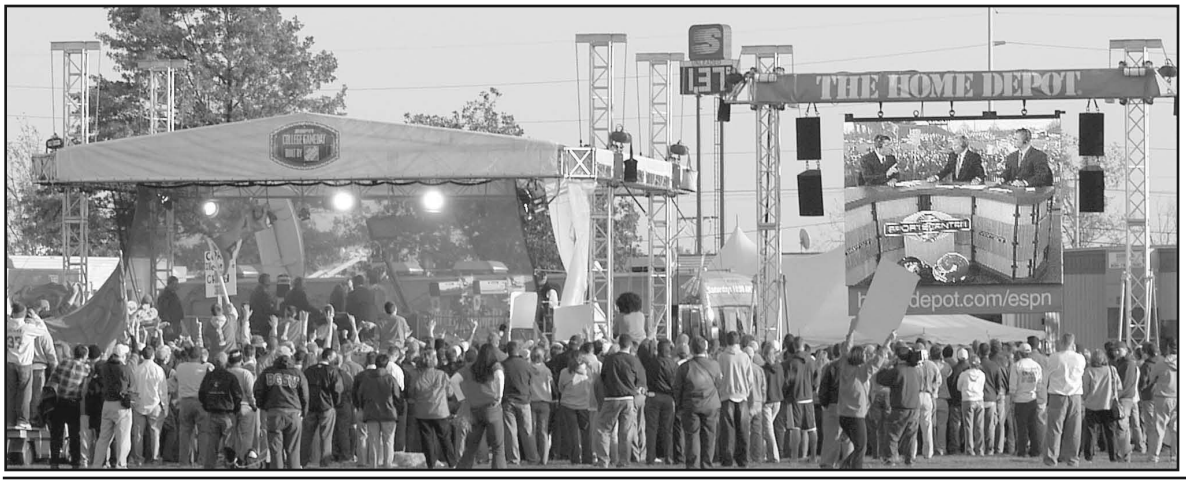

One of the most significant wins in school history was the 17-13 victory over 18th-ranked Purdue in 1972. A fourth quarter field goal by Don Taylor was the difference for Coach Don Nehlen and his Falcons.

The game netted $170,000 for the memorial fund.

The arrival of a skinny, much-heralded quarterback from Ravenna, Ohio in 1982 signaled the beginning of an 11-year period in which the Falcons would make four bowl appearances.

The quarterback was Brian McClure and all he would do in the next four seasons was lead the Falcons to a 34-12 record, a 19-1 record at home, two bowl games, and become only the second quarterback in NCAA history to pass for over 10,000 yards.

He became the starter in the third game of his freshman season, and despite missing the last two games of the regular season, he became the first freshman to be named a first-team all-league quarterback.

On Oct. 24 and 25, 2003, ESPN3 College Gameday made its home south of Doyt L. Perry Stadium. That marked the first time in MAC history that the nation's most watched college football pre-game show visited a league venue.

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

Paul Miles is second on the BG career rushing list with 3,238 yards while he is also the only football player to have his number retired. At the time of his graduation, he was only the third running back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons.

He would rewrite the BG and MAC record books before his career was over, setting five NCAA records as well. McClure still holds numerous school and MAC records.

In 1991, Gary Blackney was tabbed as the 14th head football coach, and much like the arrival of McClure, he made an immediate impact on the program.

In his first season, he took a team which compiled a 3-5-2 mark the previous season and molded them into an 11-1 squad, going undefeated in the MAC while winning the program's first bowl game.

The following season was more of the same as the Falcons were again perfect in league play and a win over Nevada in the first Las Vegas Bowl made it back-to-back bowl victories. The 1993 squad would extend the conference winning streak to a league-record 19 games while going unbeaten in the first 22 MAC games of Blackney's tenure.

Urban Meyer took over the reins of the Falcon program in 2001 and engineered the top turnaround in Division IA. The Falcons opened the Meyer era with an impressive road win at Missouri and followed that up with wins over Buffalo and Temple, surpassing their victory total of the previous year.

BGSU posted its first winning season since 1994 when it reeled off three straight wins to end the season. The Falcons' 43-42 victory at Northwestern made them the first MAC team to ever defeat three teams from BCS conferences in a single season. The Falcons ended the season six days later with a 56-21 pasting of MAC Champion Toledo.

In 2002, BGSU roared to an 8-0 start including wins over Missouri and Kansas and were ranked in both the AP and Coaches polls at the same time for the first time in school history.

Meyer's offensive coordinator, Gregg Brandon, took over as head coach in December, 2002, and guided the Falcons to their first-ever MAC West title and Motor City Bowl Championship and finished ranked in the top 25 (No. 23) in both major polls at the end of a season for the first-time in school history.

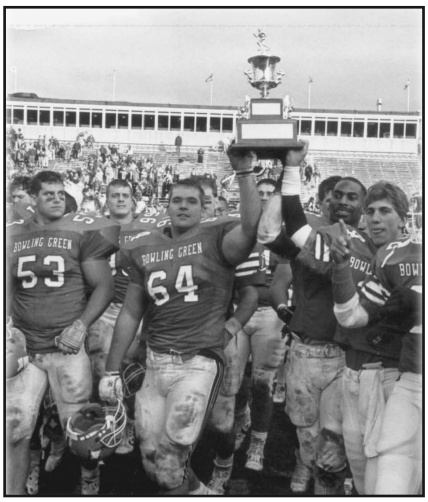

One player who links Blackney, Meyer and Brandon was All-American quarterback Josh Harris. The Westerville, Ohio native came to BGSU with the intention of sitting out the 2000 season as a redshirt, but was pressed into duty when injuries decimated the Falcon backfield.

Serving as a running back and kick returner for the bulk of the season, Harris showed signs of greatness in glimpses and even started his first career game on ESPN against Toledo.

Meyer took over the program the following season and inserted Harris into the starting lineup for good in the ninth game of the season and watched his team win 11 straight games over the next two seasons and earn its first national ranking since 1985.

Coach Gregg Brandon and assistant coach Dennis Springer celebrate the Falcons' 27-26 win over No. 16 Purdue.

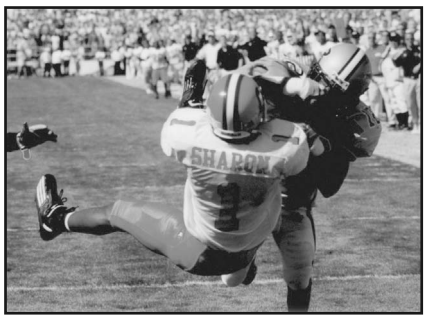

The Mid-American Conference title won by the 1991 team was the first of two consecutive championships. The 1991 team won all eight of its MAC games, the first of what would turn into a league-record 19-game winning streak.

The Motor City Bowl MVP guided the Falcons to a 6-1 record in three seasons as a starter against BCS competition.

The 2003 season gave BGSU its highest national profile and elevated the program to new heights. Longtime Falcon fans have viewed the program's 1972 win over the Boilermakers as one of the biggest in BGSU history.

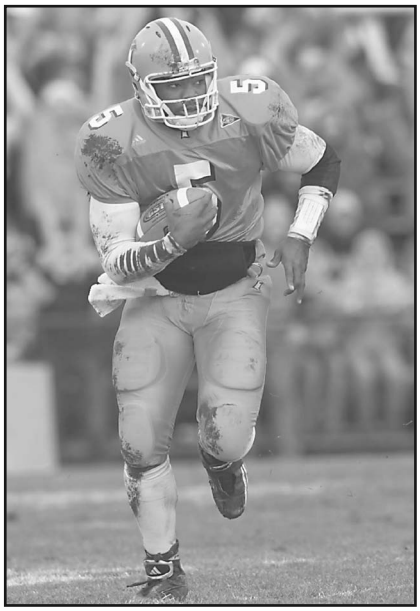

Well, lightning strikes twice. While Purdue entered the day with a No. 16 national ranking and visions of BCS aspirations dancing in their heads, the Falcons were able to keep it close and the Falcons converted twice on fourth down, capped by a 32-yard miracle pass-and-catch from Harris to Charles Sharon with 2:08 remaining to post a 27-26 win.

Charles Sharon hauls in this 32-yard touchdown pass with 2:08 left in BGSU's upset win over Purdue in 2003.

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

All-American quarterback Josh Harris takes a 48-yard TD pass from Cole Magner in the Falcons' 2003 win over Toledo. Harris was responsible for more than 100 TDs during his career.

The Falcons were back into the national spotlight with a No. 23 ranking by the AP and a showdown with undefeated and No. 12 Northern Illinois showed so much promise that ESPN's College Gameday made Bowling Green its home for the weekend. For the first time in 20 years, Doyt Perry Stadium was sold out and the game was shown on ESPN2.

All-American Janssen Patton set an NCAA record by picking off three passes in a game for the third time in his career and Harris directed the BGSU offense flawlessly as the Falcons prevailed 34-18 in just the second-ever regular season meeting between two nationally-ranked MAC schools. The Falcons would spend the next seven weeks in both national polls and were ranked 24th in the final BCS standings.

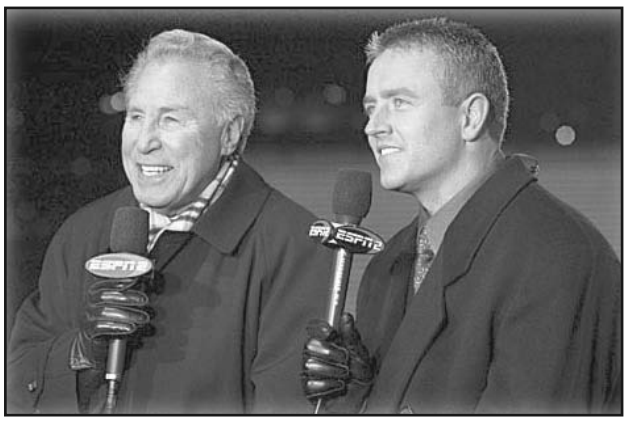

All-American quarterback Omar Jacobs set an NCAA record by throwing 41 TD passes with just four interceptions in 2004. He was named MVP of the 2004 GMAC Bowl as BGSU defeated Memphis, 52-35.

In what would be the most meaningful game in the history of the BGSU/Toledo rivalry, a national TV audience and another sellout crowd would witness the first meeting in which the two schools played the final game of the regular season for an outright championship.

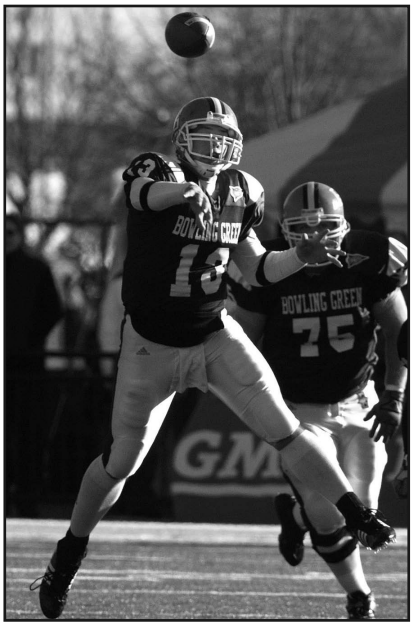

The Falcons rallied in the fourth quarter in front of a second home sellout crowd to post a 31-23 win over arch rival Toledo. That would secure the Falcons' first-ever MAC Championship game appearance at home against No. 12 Miami.

In the MAC's first-ever battle with the Big Ten in post-season play, Harris earned MVP honors completing a bowl record 38 passes as the Falcons posted a 28-24 win over Northwestern. The victory allowed the Falcons to finish a season in both the AP and Coaches polls for the first time in school history.

Lee Corso (left) and Kirk Herbstreit were part of the ESPN team which broadcast the 2003 MAC Championship game from Doyt Perry Stadium.

In 2004, BGSU once again enjoyed the national spotlight when they opened the season on the road at Oklahoma in a game that was televised by ABC. While the Falcons fell 40-24 to a team which would play for the national title, a new era was ushered in that day.

Third-team All-MAC QB Tyler Sheehan continued the BGSU tradition of great MAC quarterbacks in 2007, throwing for 3,264 yards and 23 TDs in his first year as a starting QB.

Sophomore quarterback Omar Jacobs, in his first collegiate start, would hold his own that day with Heisman Trophy winner Jason White. Jacobs would go on to earn All-American honors and MAC Offensive Player of the Year recognition after throwing for a national best 41 TD passes. He completed 309-of-462 passes for a BGSU record 4,002 yards.

Following a 1-2 start, BGSU erupted for a 70-16 victory at Temple, won their next seven games, and were ranked by both AP and ESPN for the third straight year.

BGSU would earn its second straight bowl berth and played Memphis in the GMAC Bowl. In its first game ever against a Conference USA opponent, Jacobs would throw for five TDs and 365 yards and the Falcon defense would limit the Tigers to seven points in the second half as BGSU won 52-35. The Falcons were one of a MAC record five teams selected to participate in a post-season contest.

BGSU HISTORY • YEAR-BY-YEAR RECORDS

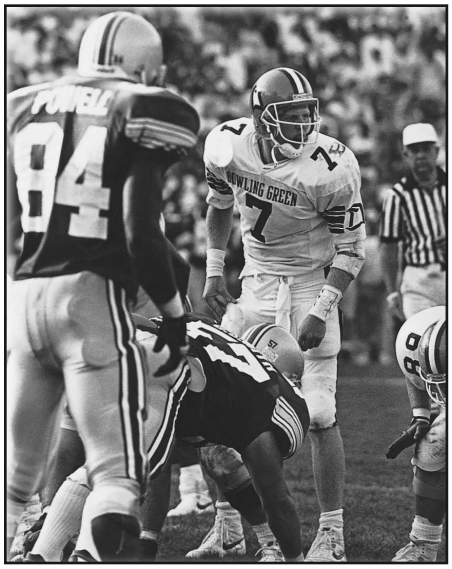

BGSU began the 2005 season ranked 23rd by Sports Illustrated and Jacobs was featured in ESPN The Magazine.

In 2007, the Falcons were picked to finish fifth in the Mid-American Conference East preseason polls, but following a 32-31 win over Minnesota to open the season, the Falcons rolled to a MAC East co-Division Championship, going 6-2, and advancing to their third bowl appearence in five seasons, finishing 2007 with an 8-5 record.

Like 2007, in 2008 the Falcons opened the season with a bang, downing No. 25 Pittsburgh, 27-17, the Falcons' first win over a ranked team since 2003. The same season the Orange and Brown hosted Minnesota, the first time in school history that a Big Ten team ventured into Doyt Perry Stadium. BGSU finished the 2008 season with a 6-6 record, ushering in a new era with the hiring of Dave Clawson on Dec. 12, 2008.

Kenny Lewis and the Falcons upset No. 25 Pittsburgh to begin the 2008 season.

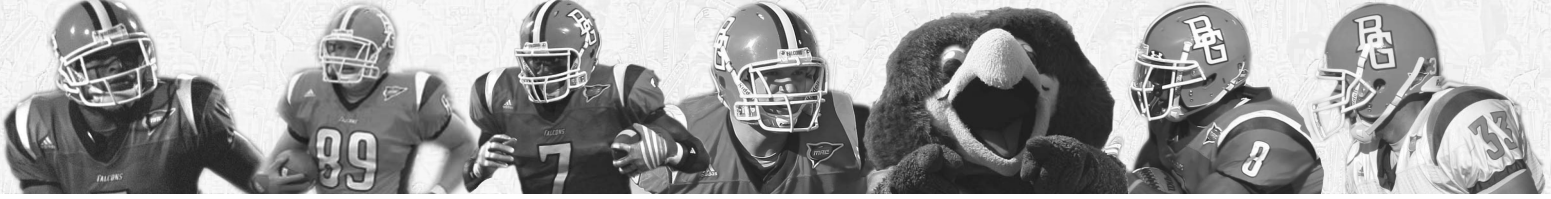

Erik White was the Las Vegas Bowl MVP in 1992.

In a one-time game to help defray the expenses (burial and medical) of families of the 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team who perished in a plane crash, Oct. 29, 1960, shortly after takeoff from Toledo Express Airport, Bowling Green and Fresno State, the undefeated champion of the California Collegiate Athletic Association, met at the historic Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Playing before its largest crowd in school history, the Falcons, six-point favorites, were guilty, uncharacteristically, of six turnovers, which was the difference in the game. BG's defense, which was ranked fourth in the nation, yielded 468 yards, 196 more than it had given up to any opponent during the season. Quarterbacks Beau Carter and Jon Anabo were thorns in BG's side all day passing for 368 yards and two touchdowns. Carter ran for two scores, also.

BG scored its only points early in the second stanza on the two-yard run by Ray Bell which was set up on a long pass play between Larry Smith and quarterback Jim Potts.

BG fumbled on its next two possessions with FSU turning the second miscue into a touchdown on a long pass play. Bowling Green did have a pass dropped in the end zone as the first half ended which would have given them the lead. Fresno State then scored 1:44 apart midway through the third period to put the game away, the second score set up by a fumbled snap on an attempted punt.The contest netted $170,000 for the memorial fund which aided the survivors and the relatives of the victims of the plane crash. Cal Poly SLO had played at Bowling Green the afternoon before the crash.

After a full week of events leading up to the meeting with the Pacific Coast Athletic Association champion Fresno State, the Falcons entered the game against the Bulldogs a two-touchdown underdog.

The Falcons also had to contend with a partisan sea of red squeezed into Bulldog Stadium, the home of Fresno State.

But, the Falcons drew first blood converting a Jac Tomasello interception on the final play of the first quarter into the first touchdown of the game, a Chip Otten four-yard run capping a 48-yard drive. The Falcons took a 14-0 lead to the locker room after driving 73 yards on their next possession. Sophomore quarterback Brian McClure connected with John Meek on the scoring play.

BG looked to be in the driver's seat after McClure connected with Shawn

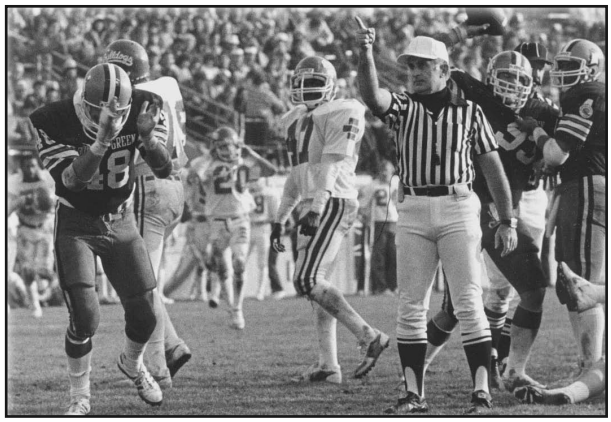

Potts from five yards out in the third stanza. But, Fresno State answered BG's score with their first of the contest later in the quarter.

Bowling Green came right back as Potts picked up a fumble by receiver Greg Taylor at the five-yard line and ran it in to put the Falcons back up by three touchdowns.

With Fresno State pinned back on its own 20-yard line and facing a third-and-ten, a Falcon stop might have put the final nail in the Fresno State coffin. But, FSU gained 15 yards on the third-down play and the comeback was on.

With future NFL receiver Stephone Paige running and catching a pass for a touchdown, FSU closed to within six points with three minutes left. BG used up just 1:05 of the clock on its next possession and FSU moved 45 yards in eight plays with Jeff Tedford finding Vince Wesson over the middle with 11 seconds left. Scott Darrow's PAT was the deciding point.

BG gained just 26 yards on nine plays in the fourth quarter while FSU gained 220 of its 453 yards in the final 15 minutes.

This third quarter fumble recovery by Stu Tolle set up the third Falcon touchdown giving the Falcons a 21-0 lead over Fresno State in the 1982 California Bowl.

The tone for what was expected to be one of the most evenly-matched California Bowls, came earlier in the week when BGSU head coach Denny Stolz told the team before their Wednesday practice he would be leaving after the bowl game to accept the head coaching job at San Diego State.

An indication of what was ahead for the Falcons in the game came early in the first quarter when, trailing 7-0, they drove to the Bulldog one-yard line where they fumbled the ball away in the end zone, the first of five on the day and the same number they had committed in the first 11 games of the season. Fresno State would score the next 37 points before BG would hit paydirt.

Wide receiver Mark Szlachcic (#84) had 11 receptions, two for touchdowns, for a school-record 189 yards in the 1991 California Bowl.

Not even being a double-digit underdog against Fresno State could keep the Falcons from completing its storybook season under first-year head coach Gary Blackney.

And the script for this game was all Hollywood.

The first quarter would have led the fans to believe it might take 40 or 50 points to win the game as the Falcons scored touchdowns on their first two possessions and the Bulldogs would get one of those back before the quarter was over.

The scoring continued early in the second stanza as BG's Erik White and Mark Szlachcic hooked up for a second time. But, FSU came right back on their next possession with Anthony Daigle running 57 yards to cut the deficit in half going to the lockerroom.

The defenses took over in the third quarter, each allowing just 65 yards total offense. Late in the quarter, FSU placekicker Derek Mahoney missed a 26-yard field goal, the most significant scoring opportunity of the quarter.

BG scored early in the final stanza moving 80 yards after the missed field goal to build another 14-point lead.

FSU came right back to score, driving 71 yards as quarterback Mark Barsotti completed five-of-six passes, connecting with tight end Marty Thompson from five yards out.

After three changes of possession, FSU started the final drive of the game from their one-yard line, after an interception, with 2:29 remaining.

FSU used its last time out with 24 seconds left and the Bulldogs just nine yards away from the needed touchdown. After a running play for six yards and two incomplete passes, the final play of the game would determine the outcome with three seconds left.

The BG defense rose to the occasion covering all FSU receivers and Barsotti threw incomplete with BG linebacker Kevin O'Brien pressuring. It was BG's first bowl win.

BG won its 11th game making Blackney one of only three coaches in NCAA history to win 11 games in their first season as a head coach.

In the inaugural Las Vegas Bowl, which replaced the California Bowl, the Falcons faced the high-powered offense of the University of Nevada.

In a game in which the punting game took center stage, the Falcons won the first half and Nevada the second half, but a late BG touchdown proved to be the difference.

The Falcons scored on their first four possessions to grab a 28-3 halftime lead. BG had 267 first-half yards to just 116 for the Wolfpack as they had an 18-6 edge in first downs.

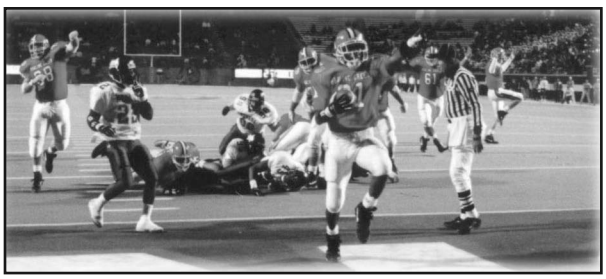

In the second half, it was Nevada quarterback Chris Vargas' turn. He had engineered six Nevada comeback victories in three years coming off the bench, including an NCAA-record 35-point comeback against Weber State.

Nevada scored three touchdowns in the third quarter with punts of five and seven yards by BG setting up the first two scores. The Wolfpack's third score was set up by a high snap from center on a BG punt.

Nevada finally took the lead with 12:41 left in the game and looked to possibly put the game away with a field goal with 7:13 left, ending their run of 31 unanswered points.

Bowling Green then moved to the Nevada six-yard line before turning the ball over on downs. After holding the Wolfpack to one first down, Nevada punter Steve Lester had the center snap go through his hands setting up the Falcons at the Wolfpack 15-yard line with 1:45 remaining.

A 12-yard Erik White to Mark Szlachcic connection on first down put the Falcons on the three-yard line. After two runs and a pass did not net any yardage, White found Dave Hankins alone in the back of the end zone on fourth down with 22 seconds left. Placekicker Brian Leaver made the PAT for the winning points and BG's second consecutive bowl win.

Northwestern took away Bowling Green's running game. So Josh Harris beat the Wildcats through the air. Harris passed for 386 yards and three touchdowns to lead Bowling Green to a 28-24 victory over Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl. It was the first postseason meeting ever between schools from the MAC and Big Ten.

Bowling Green took the lead for good on Harris' 3-yard touchdown pass to Cole Magner with 4:06 left. Harris, who also ran for a TD, set a Motor City Bowl and BGSU record for completions with 38 in 50 attempts. It also marked the third fourth-quarter rally for BGSU against a Big Ten squad (Northwestern in 2001 and Purdue in 2003). Magner also set a game record for catches, finishing with 12 for 97 yards and two touchdowns.

Jason Wright ran for 237 yards on 21 carries and finished with 336 all-purpose yards for Northwestern. He had a 77-yard TD run - the second-longest run in Motor City Bowl history - to give the Wildcats a 17-7 lead early in the third quarter and an 88-yard kickoff return early in the fourth to set up Noah Herron's 2-yard touchdown run that made it 24-21.

Bowling Green used two 80-yard scoring drives to take a 21-17 lead early in the fourth. Harris threw a 7-yard TD pass to Magner, and put the Falcons on top with an 11-yarder to Steve Sanders.

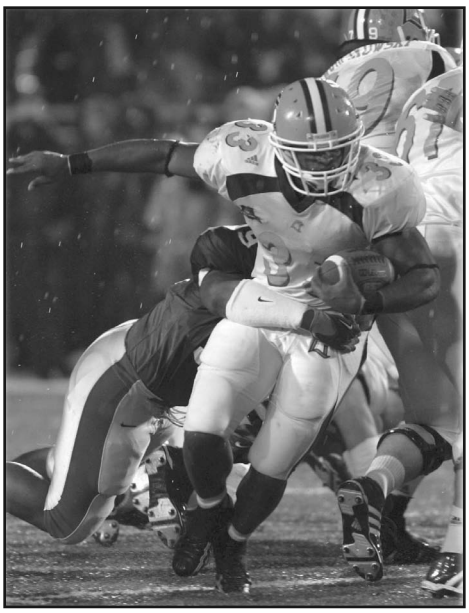

Northwestern opened the scoring on Herron's 40-yard fourth-down run in the first quarter, and made it 10-0 on Brian Huffman's 31-yard field goal. Bowling Green answered with a 67-yard drive, capped by Harris' 4-yard run.

Bowling Green quarterback Josh Harris (left) was named co-MVP of the 2003 Motor City Bowl after leading the Falcons to a 28-24 comeback win over Northwestern, giving the MAC its first-ever postseason win over a Big Ten foe. Harris set a Motor City Bowl record by completing 38-of-50 passes for 386 yards and three TDs. Harris finished his career with 7,503 yards passing, 2,473 yards rushing and 104 TDs responsible for. Falcon head coach Gregg Brandon (right) led all NCAA IA first-year head coaches in victories by leading the Falcons to an 11-3 record.

Omar Jacobs went from Bowling Green's question mark to the Mid-American Conference's latest star quarterback. Jacobs capped a marvelous sophomore season by passing for 365 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Falcons to a 52-35 victory over Memphis in the GMAC Bowl.

The Falcons (9-3) turned a shootout into a blowout after leading 35-28 at halftime to win their fourth consecutive bowl game. Jacobs got them started with four first-half touchdown passes - two apiece to Charles Sharon and Steve Sanders helped carry them the rest of the way. Pope ran 28 times for 151 yards and a pair of 1-yard touchdowns. He also caught a 13-yard pass for the only score of the third quarter. The Tigers (8-4), playing in back-to-back bowl games for the first time, couldn't keep up with the nation's No. 4 offense, which totaled 558 total yards.

Jacobs, whose 41 touchdown passes led the nation and set a Mid-American Conference record, completed 26-of-44 passes with an interception to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

At halftime, the teams seemed poised to take aim at the 2001 GMAC Bowl, the highest scoring bowl game in history with 125 combined points for Marshall and East Carolina. The offenses stopped themselves early in the third quarter. Jacobs threw only his fourth interception of the season to give the Tigers the ball at Bowling Green's 41. Memphis tried to go for it on fourth down but was twice penalized for having 12 men on the field. Bowling Green made it 42-28 on the ensuing possession with Pope slipping underneath for a 13-yard touchdown catch on third-and-7. The Tigers then squandered another trip across midfield when a scrambling Wimprine fumbled the ball and Bowling Green's Mike Thaler recovered 31 yards behind the line of scrimmage to set up a field goal. Even the weather worked in the offenses' favor, however, with a driving rainstorm subsiding a few minutes before kickoff to clear the way for Jacobs and Wimprine to go to work. They took full advantage. Jacobs capped his four-touchdown half with a 17-yarder to Sanders, who reached over defensive back Cameron Essex in the end zone with 37 seconds left.

Not surprisingly, it was a night for offensive records. Jacobs set the MAC record with his 41st overall touchdown rushing or passing in the first quarter, adding four more. He also joined Ben Roethlisberger and Byron Leftwich as the league's only 4,000-yard passers. The Falcons also set the MAC record for scoring average in a season.

The Falcons enjoy the post-game celebration following their 52-35 victory over Memphis in the 2004 GMAC Bowl. Game MVP Omar Jacobs threw a bowl-record five TD tosses.

Hurricane Paul Smith and the nation's top-rated offense turned a little charity into a lot of history in the GMAC Bowl.

Smith had his NCAA-record 14th consecutive 300-yard passing game, and Tulsa converted four fumble recoveries into first-half touchdowns on the way to a 63-7 win over Bowling Green in the 2007 GMAC Bowl.

With all that help, the Golden Hurricane (10-4) ran up a 35-0 halftime lead and capped coach Todd Graham's first season by reaching 10 wins for the first time since 1991.

Smith passed for 312 yards and five touchdowns. He broke the record of 13 300-yard efforts in a row he shared with BYU's Ty Detmer, whose streak stretched over the 1989 and 1990 seasons.

He and Tarrion Adams joined Houston's David Klingler and Chuck Weatherspoon as the NCAA's only 5,000-yard passing and 1,000-yard rushing tandems.

Tulsa outgained Bowling Green (8-5) 562-229 in total yards.

Adams scored touchdowns running, passing and receiving before halftime and ran for 112 yards. Trae Johnson caught two scoring passes.

Bowling Green, which had won four consecutive bowl games, lost three fumbles in its own territory in the first quarter and never recovered.

Quarterback Tyler Sheehan was helped off the field with a left ankle injury with 24 seconds left in the first half and didn't return. Sheehan passed for 141 yards and ran for another 21.

Still throwing the ball despite the large lead late in the fourth quarter, the Golden Hurricanes became the first team in NCAA history to have a 5,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers. Smith came in needing 247 yards along with 45 yards receiving from Charles Clay, who reached the milestone with several catches midway through the fourth quarter and finished with 11 for 69 yards.

The Mid-American Conference had won five of six GMAC Bowls before the Falcons' fall.

Down 42-0, Bowling Green got on the board when Roger Williams scored on a 78-yard kick return early in the third quarter for the Falcons' only points. It was the first kickoff return for a touchdown in the history of the GMAC Bowl.

Despite the loss the 2007 season was a very impressive one for the Orange and Brown, who finished the year with an 8-5 record, matching Central Michigan for the most overall wins in the conference.

The Falcons, who were picked to finish fifth in the East Division, finished MAC play with a 6-2 record, finishing in a three-way tie for tops among the East.

DOYT L. PERRY

1988 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee

The year 1988 will be fondly remembered by many who are associated with the football program at BGSU. That year Doyt L. Perry, a former player, coach and administrator was recognized by the National Football Foundation with its top honor, induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Perry traveled to New York in December of 1988 for the Foundation's Hall of Fame dinner and was officially enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in June, 1989, in ceremonies held at Kings Island, Ohio.

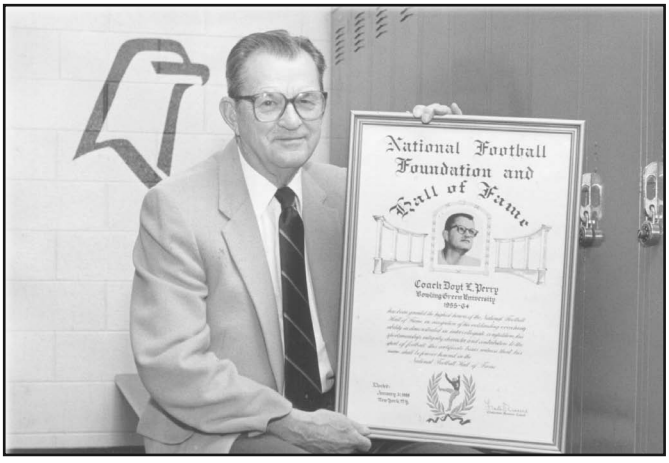

Perry's association with BGSU dates back to the 1920s when he lettered nine times in three sports (football, basketball and baseball). The Croton, Ohio native received his degree in 1932. He began coaching on the high school level before becoming an assistant at Ohio State in 1951.

Perry returned to his alma mater in 1955, leading the football program to a 77-11-5 (.855) record over the next 11 years. His teams won five Mid-American Conference titles and one national college division championship in 1959. Perry's winning percentage ranks fifth on the all-time NCAA list.

Perry, who retired from coaching in 1964 to become BGSU's athletic director, developed such outstanding coaches as Bill Mallory, Don Nehlen, Larry Smith, and the late Dave McClain. Many more of Perry's former assistants and players have gone on to enjoy success in the coaching profession.

Perry passed away in February of 1992. At his memorial service former Michigan coach Bo Schembechler, an assistant on Perry's 1955 staff, said, "I don't believe I can name a coach, anywhere, anytime, anyhow, who did it better than Doyt Perry."

A documentary on Perry's career was released in May of 1998. It was produced by WBGU-TV.

WHY ORANGE AND BROWN?

Orange and brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a women's hat on a bus to nearby Toledo, Ohio. He liked the brown and orange color combination. So, too, did former Cleveland Browns' head coach Paul Brown. Following a trip to BGSU in the 1940s, Brown used the colors for his All-America Conference team.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you'll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

FIGHT SONG

Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Fight for victory,
Show your spirit, make them fear it
Fight for 'ol Bee Gee.

Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Make the contest keen,
Shout out the fame of our mighty name
And win for Bowling Green!

AY ZIGGY ZOOMBA

Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Ze
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zi
Roll along you BG warriors
Roll along and win for BGSU

Ay Ziggy Zoomba is Bowling Green's unofficial fight song. Gil Fox, an Air Force bombadier in World War II stationed in Italy, brought a loose translation of a Zulu war chant back with him, and since its introduction in 1946 to a campus spirit assembly, it has kept its place in BGSU history. The Falcon football team traditionally sings "Ay Ziggy Zoomba" after each victory.

Retired Jersey

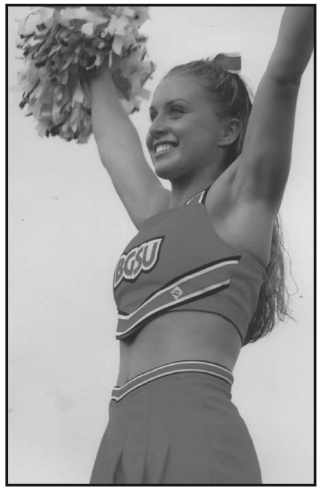

The only football jersey ever retired at Bowling Green is #29. It was worn by Paul Miles from 1971-73. Miles rushed for 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns in his career and was a three-time first team All-MAC selection. He was just the third back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three consecutive seasons.

Why The Falcons?

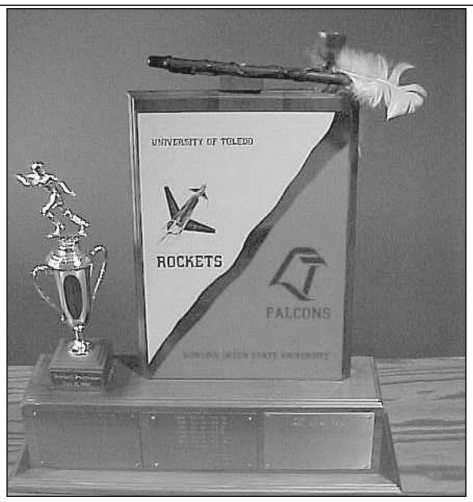

The 2008-2009 athletic year marks the 81st anniversary of Bowling Green's nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake '23 suggested the nickname after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the Sentinel Tribune in Bowling Green at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size."

Frieda & Freddie Falcon

Frieda and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is "beheaded" at the last home basketball and hockey game. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added for the 1979-80 athletic year.

PEACE PIPE AWARD

The Peace Pipe is a traveling award that goes to the winner of the annual gridiron battle between Bowling Green and Toledo. The Peace Pipe tradition actually began on the basketball court during the 1947-48 season. At that time, the teams exchanged a six-foot long wooden peace pipe. The original basketball Peace Pipe disappeared, so, in 1980, the Peace Pipe was reinstated for football with former UT football player Frank Kralik creating the present trophy. Today's Peace Pipe is a smaller version of the original pipe, resting atop a trophy.

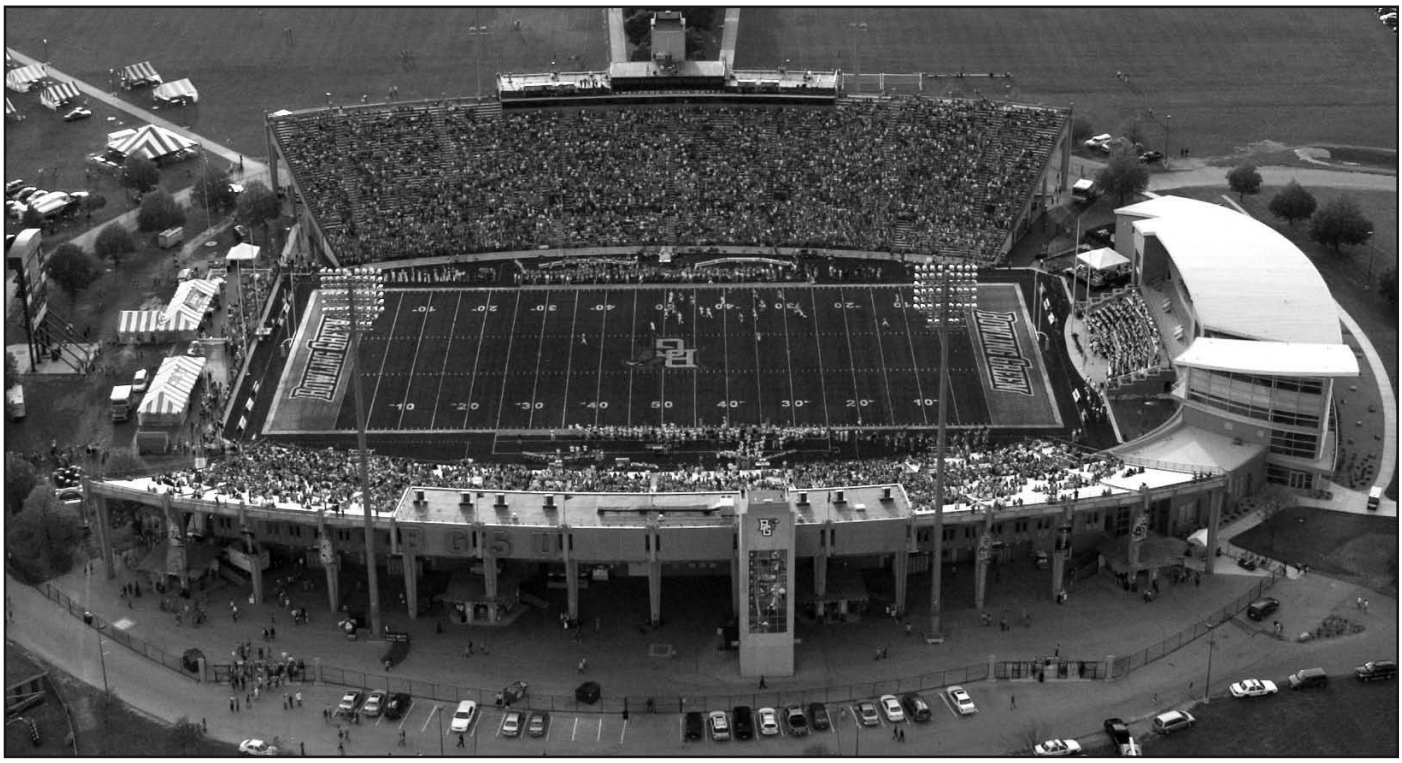

ANNIVERSARY AWARD

The Anniversary Award is a traveling award that goes to the winner of the football game between Bowling Green and Kent State. Established in 1985 by the respective alumni departments at BGSU and KSU, the Anniversary Award commemorates the founding of BGSU and KSU in the year 1910.

RECORD BOOK • DOYT L. PERRY STADIUM

Doyt L. Perry Stadium has added lights, a new scoreboard, FieldTurf, some chairback seating and the Sebo Athletic Center since 2001

Doyt L. Perry Stadium, with its 24,000 seating capacity, is celebrating its 43rd year as the home of Bowling Green State University football. In 2001 permanent lighting was installed at the venue and home attendance doubled. In 2004, a new scoreboard with video capabilities was installed and new FieldTurf and the Sebo Athletic Center were added for the 2007 season.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Stadium had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982 (Those bleatchers have been removed, to give way for the Sebo Athletic Center, giving BGSU the 24,000 current capacity). One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Stadium set the conference record for single-game attendance.

On Oct. 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Stadium for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out Toledo at Perry Stadium in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green's season attendance to an average of 22,422. In 1994, BG fans bettered the mark of 1985 as 114,802 fans, an average of 22,960, attended the five home games.

In 2003, Falcon faithful attended sellout games against Northern Illinois and Toledo as ESPN broadcast three games live from the facility and brought its weekly college football show, Gameday, to Bowling Green. That year, BGSU averaged more than 21,000 per home game.

Perry Stadium is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes locker rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side is the home of the new BGSU Golf Training Center, filled with a 1,200 square foot putting green, locker rooms and hitting bays.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. The Stadium Club's 106 theatre-type seats provide loyal BGSU fans with the best view of the game. The President's Box, located at the top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for the University President and her guests, along with other supporters of Falcon football.

The construction of elevators on both sides of the stadium, completed in early 1998, has made the stadium more accessible for all fans. Renovations to all boxes on both sides and the stadium club have taken place over the last few years making for a more "fan-friendly" atmosphere. Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on Oct. 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won over 66 percent of their home games, compiling a 140-68-6 record in the 214 games played at Perry Stadium.

Total Home Attendance
3,332,597
(an average of 15,572 for 214 home games over the last 43 years)

Longest Winning Streak
16 (1983-86)

Perry Stadium is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, Perry is fifth all-time behind Bob Reade (Augustana), Knute Rockne (Notre Dame), Frank Leahy (Notre Dame), and Larry Kehres (Mount Union) in winning percentage among coaches with at least 10 years of service on the collegiate level. Perry served as the BGSU athletic director for seven years (1965-71) after stepping down as football coach.

UNIVERSITY • DR. CAROL A. CARTWRIGHT

DR. CAROL A. CARTWRIGHT
President, Bowling Green State University

Dr. Carol A. Cartwright, who is one of the most highly respected voices in higher education, is the first woman to take a presidential role at Bowling Green State University. She was named the president of BGSU Jan. 6, 2009, after serving as interim president since July 2008.

Dr. Cartwright's experience in Ohio was key to the BGSU Board of Trustee's decision to name her president. She also has a keen understanding of the opportunities available through the University System of Ohio and is supportive of the vision of Gov. Strickland and Chancellor Fingerhut.

Dr. Cartwright's career has been distinguished by innovative teaching, pioneering research and national leadership. She became Kent State University's 10th president–and the first woman president of a state university in Ohio–in March 1991. She retired as president in June 2006 and was named president emeritus. Prior to her career at Kent State, she was vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of California at Davis and dean for undergraduate programs and vice provost at The Pennsylvania State University.

Under Dr. Cartwright's leadership, student success became Kent State's top priority; many mutually beneficial partnerships were forged with businesses, schools and other universities; the status of teaching and public service was elevated; academic programs were launched in a wide range of high-demand and emerging fields; the university pioneered technologies that enhance teaching and learning; enrollment increased in quantity and quality; building and celebrating diversity became an institutional priority; new collaborations and exchanges connected Kent State to every corner of the world; the university constructed 21st-century facilities from residence halls to research labs; and Kent State successfully completed its first, major fund-raising campaign.

Dr. Cartwright held prominent leadership roles on higher education's most influential national organizations, chairing the board of directors of the American Association for Higher Education and serving on the boards of directors of the American Council on Education and the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges. She chaired the National Collegiate Athletic Association Executive Committee and served as a member of the NCAA's board of directors. She also served on the executive board of the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education; the Center for Research Libraries board of directors; and the American Council on Education Commission on Women in Higher Education. She currently serves on the board of directors of the American Association of Colleges and Universities; the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics; and the National Public Radio board of directors.

Dr. Cartwright was a leading member of numerous regional and statewide civic and economic-development organizations, including the Greater Akron Chamber, the Northeast Ohio Council on Higher Education and NorTech. She co-chaired the Ohio Technology in Education Committee, which developed Ohio's master plan for educational technology from preschool through graduate school. Her participation in initiatives to improve Ohio's economy includes past service on the Governor's Commission on Higher Education and the Economy. Dr. Cartwright also serves on the boards of directors of three companies with headquarters in Northeast Ohio: KeyCorp and PolyOne Corporation of Cleveland and FirstEnergy Corp. of Akron.

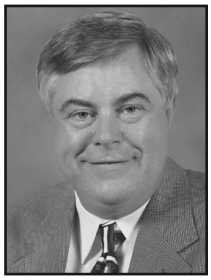

The scope of her contributions to higher education led to Dr. Cartwright's induction into the Ohio Women's Hall of Fame in her first year of eligibility. She received Distinguished Alumni awards from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater and the University of Pittsburgh; the Clairol Mentor Award in Education; the YWCA Greater Cleveland Women of Achievement Award; the Northeast Ohio ATHENA Award; and the March of Dimes Franklin Delano Roosevelt Humanitarian Award for Excellence. After announcing her retirement as president, she was honored throughout the region, state and nation, including recognition in the form of resolutions of appreciation from the Ohio Legislature and the U.S. Congress. She was awarded the title "President Emeritus" from the Kent State University Board of Trustees. In addition, the Auditorium Building on the university's Kent Campus was named "Carol A. Cartwright Hall" in her honor.

Dr. Cartwright earned master's and doctoral degrees from the University of Pittsburgh and her bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin at Whitewater.

She and Dr. G. Phillip Cartwright have three children, the youngest of whom is a Kent State graduate, and two grandchildren.

Mr. Sebo received his bachelor of science degree in business administration in 1958 from BGSU. His Bowling Green affiliations include membership in the Presidents Club, Heritage Society, Falcon Club and Kappa Sigma Fraternity. Mr. Sebo provided the lead gift for construction of the Sebo Athletic Center. In addition, he established the Bob Sebo Football Scholarship, the Bob Sebo Endowed Scholarship in Jazz Studies and the Bob Sebo Lecture Series in Entrepreneurship in the College of Business Administration. Mr. Sebo and his wife, Linda, reside in Salem.

FRAN VOLL
Marion (2016)

Francis C. (Fran) Voll ('68) is in his ninth year as principal of Marion Catholic High School, Marion, Ohio. Voll is a former BGSU women's basketball coach, leading the Falcons to two undefeated Mid-American Conference seasons, three regular-season MAC championships, four MAC tournament titles and four trips to the NCAA tournament. He was the BGSU coach from 1984-91, when he stepped down to become assistant athletic director and Falcon Club director. In 1996, he moved to Central Michigan University as women's basketball coach. When he was named BGSU's head women's coach in 1984, Voll was the most successful girls' high school basketball coach in the nation, coming from Delphos St. John. He was inducted into the BGSU Athletic Hall of Fame and the Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Hall of Fame. He is a former color announcer for men's and women's basketball games for the Buckeye Cable Sports Network. Voll has been a strong supporter of BGSU and ended his term as resource development chair of the BGSU Alumni Association Board of Directors in May 2007. Now very active in his local community, he served as president of the Marion Rotary during the 2008-09 year. He received a bachelor's degree in education from BGSU in 1968, and a master's degree, also in education, from St. Francis College in Fort Wayne, Ind.

UNIVERSITY • DR. ED WHIPPLE

Dr. Edward G. Whipple joined the Bowling Green State University staff in July of 1994, and continues a 25-year career in higher education administration.

As Vice President for Student Affairs, he is responsible for the overall administration of nearly every area of student life at BGSU and a variety of programs, including intercollegiate athletics, counseling, cooperative education, career services, health, disability services, multicultural affairs, recreational sports, golf course, ice arena program, residence life, Greek affairs, student life programs, student publications, the Bowen-Thompson Student Union and University Dining Services. Dr. Whipple coordinated the BGSU athletics department ten-year self-study review, in anticipation of the successful NCAA program evaluation visit in February of 2006.

Dr. Whipple is an adjunct associate professor in the Division of Higher Education and Student Affairs in the College of Education and Human Development.

Dr. Whipple graduated with a degree in English and French from Willamette University in Salem, Oregon. After earning a master's degree in English from Northwestern University, he taught high school English and French in Chicago and Reedsport, Oregon, in addition to coaching swimming and track. In 1978, he enrolled in the college student services administration doctoral program at Oregon State University. He received his doctorate in 1981 and his first student affairs position was Greek affairs coordinator at Iowa State University, where he supervised the activities of 48 fraternity and sorority chapters.

In 1982, he was named associate dean of students and assistant professor of education and a member of the graduate faculty at Texas Tech University. In 1985, he became dean of students at the University of Alabama-Tuscaloosa, and taught in the Department of English.

Prior to coming to Bowling Green, Dr. Whipple was vice president for student affairs at Montana State University-Billings; that institution's first V.P. for student affairs. While there, he was given the challenge of reorganizing the student affairs area at Montana State, a university of 3,800 students. In addition to managing the student affairs program, Dr. Whipple was also an associate professor and taught courses in both the School of Liberal Arts (English literature) and the School of Education (teacher preparation).

He has written articles for student affairs journals, texts, and monographs and is affiliated with several professional organizations. He has held leadership positions at the regional and national level in the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA). Currently, he serves as President of NASPA's Foundation Board and is also a member of that organization's Journal Board. He currently serves as Chair of the Council on Student Affairs of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges. He also serves on the Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges as an evaluator for institution accreditation. Dr. Whipple served two terms as President of the Ohio Student Personnel Association. He is the past international President of Phi Delta Theta fraternity and is currently the national President of Order of Omega, the Greek/leadership/scholarship honorary.

Dr. Whipple currently serves on the Woodlane Industries Board of Trustees and is President of the Bowling Green Exchange Club. He has served as President of the BGSU Friends of the Libraries and the Bowling Green Junior High School PTO.

His educational background also includes traveling to France to study the French language at the University de Caen in Caen and graduate work at the Universite Catholique de l'Ouest in Angers. In 1988, he took a special management development program at Harvard University.

Dr. Whipple is the parent of a 20-year-old son, John. He and his wife, Cindy, a member of the Romance Languages faculty at BGSU, reside in Bowling Green.

UNIVERSITY • GREG CHRISTOPHER

Greg Christopher enters his fourth year as Assistant Vice President of Student Affairs/Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at Bowling Green State University, having accomplished a great deal in his first two years in Northwest Ohio. Christopher, the 12th full-time athletic director in school history, began his duties at BGSU in July of 2006.

Christopher oversees an 18-sport program which has a budget of $16.5 million and 73 full-time employees. BGSU, which is a member of the Mid-American Conference (MAC) and Central Collegiate Hockey Association (CCHA), is one of 13 programs in the country which sponsor Division I-A football and compete in men's and women's basketball and men's ice hockey on the Division I level.

A native of West Lafayette, Ind., Christopher has moved the BGSU athletic department forward in multiple areas in his first two years. The Sebo Athletic Center was completed in the fall of 2007, featuring expanded and state-of-the-art sports medicine and rehabilitation facilities as well as a strength and conditioning area for all University student-athletes. The new front entrance for Doyt L. Perry Stadium, the building also houses administrative offices as well as offices and meeting rooms for the football Falcons.

The Sebo Athletic Center is part of $14 million in new or renovated athletics facilities completed during Christopher's tenure. That facilities list includes the new Keefe Tennis Complex, a renovation to Whittaker Track and the FieldTurf inside Perry Stadium.

Additionally, more than $44 million are in the works, including an $8 million renovation to the BGSU Ice Arena and a $36 million convocation center. The Stroh Center, a brand-new arena for the Falcon basketball and volleyball programs, is scheduled to be completed in 2012. Incremental facility improvement plans are also underway for other BGSU athletics venues.

Athletics highlights of Christopher's two years include three MAC championships, with two in women's basketball and one in baseball. The women's hoops Falcons became the first team in conference history to advance to the 'Sweet 16' of the NCAA Championships in 2006-07, winning a MAC-record 31 games along the way.

In 2007-08, the football program tied for the MAC's East Division title, being invited to the GMAC Bowl. The bowl bid was the program's third in five years. The women's basketball Falcons won the MAC regular-season title for an unprecedented fourth consecutive season, advancing to national postseason play – also for the fourth-straight year – with a trip to the WNIT. The baseball team tied for the MAC regular-season crown, while the women's soccer team advanced to the championship match of the MAC Tournament for the fourth time in five seasons.

In the classroom, the Falcons have flourished, as the number of student-athletes with a GPA of 3.0 or above has increased in each of the last two years. In 2007-08, BGSU student-athletes cracked the 3.0 barrier for cumulative GPA as a group, and no fewer than 184 BG student-athletes had a GPA of at least 3.0. The student-athlete graduation rate is greater than the overall student body's graduation rate.

Christopher implemented the Falcon Leadership Academy, a leadership development program for BGSU student-athletes. Christopher, along with several other administrators in the athletics department, serves as an instructor for the class, which represents each of the department's 18 varsity sports.

Christopher's background in fundraising and development has been evident in his first two years at BGSU. There have been double-digit percentage increases in the external funding areas, including development, corporate marketing, licensing and concessions. Christopher has furthered the department's logo transition and integrated an external communications plan.

Christopher came to BGSU after spending nearly a decade at Purdue University in his hometown. He served as Associate A.D. for External Relations and John Purdue Club Director at Purdue University. Christopher, who had been at the school since 1997, was a member of the department's senior staff. He served in that position since March of 2005 and was accountable for external and revenue-related areas for Purdue's $50 million department. In his role, he oversaw several areas, including development, marketing, promotions and advertising, athletic licensing and sports information.

Under his leadership, Purdue raised $17.2 million in total giving for Athletics in his final year there. He also played a significant role in a seven-year campus-wide capital campaign which was on track to raise $111 million for Athletics during that period. Projects that came to fruition in that time frame include tripling the number of endowed athletic scholarships and several facility additions or renovations. Among the facility projects were an indoor golf training center, football stadium renovation, aquatic center, indoor tennis center, and basketball video board campaign. He also was the advisor for Purdue's chapter of Athletes-in-Action, and served a period of time as the sport administrator for Purdue's men's and women's tennis programs.

He began his career on the Boilermaker staff as Assistant Director of the John Purdue Club, and was promoted to Director in 1999 and to Assistant A.D. in 2002.

Christopher served as Executive Director for the Society of Professional Journalists in Greencastle, Ind., from 1994 to 1997 after joining the organization in 1991 as its Marketing and Development Director. During that time, he managed a staff of 15 and a $1.6-million budget for the nation's largest not-for-profit journalism organization. His tenure focused largely on external relations, fueling growth that doubled the net worth of the foundation and association. He also improved relations with SPJ's 250 local chapters and national volunteer leaders and negotiated contracts and corporate partnerships.

Prior to joining SPJ, Christopher was an Account Executive at WWWV-FM in Charlottesville, Va., from 1988-90. In that capacity, he designed and managed station promotions, including partnerships with the athletics program at the University of Virginia. He also was part of the "Page Program" at NBC in New York in 1988 where he served as a research analyst, assisting the Manager of Sports Programming and Market Analysis in research of television sports. Christopher also produced network sports tracking reports and surveys of major league sports.

He earned a bachelor's degree in Mass Communication from MAC-member Miami University in 1988 and earned his MBA from the institution in 1991. He played football for one season before the former linebacker's career was cut short due to injury. In 1987-88 and 1990-91, Christopher was involved as a television color commentator in football and play-by-play voice for men's ice hockey which aired on regional cable television and WPTD-TV in Dayton. He also served as a graduate assistant in the Office of Admissions at Miami in 1990-91.

Christopher is a member of the Mid-American Conference's External Relations Committee, and is the women's basketball administrative chair. In the spring of 2008, he was appointed to the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee.

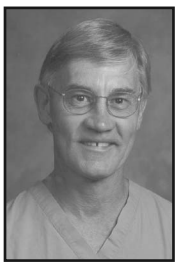

Christopher, 42, is married to the former Tina Smith of Leetonia, Ohio. The couple has a son, Zachary, 12, and two daughters, Megan and Allison, ages 10 and 8.

THE POWER OF ONE

It's about YOU.

Your participation is absolutely vital.

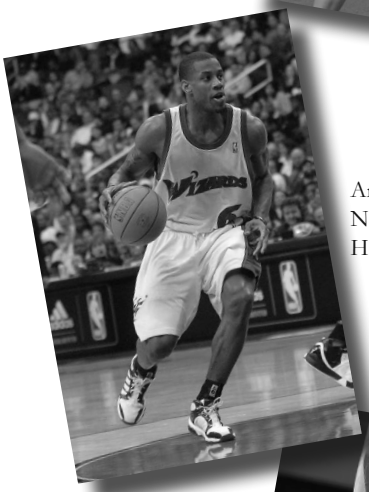

Recruitment success has never been more important because the difference essentially comes down to finding the ONE.

Can we afford that ONE student-athlete, that ONE aspiring young person who can offer BGSU that ONE sparkling moment of greatness and grace?

It depends.

Can we encourage ONE more Falcon Club member to join, increase his or her giving level or recruit ONE more member?

Use the power. Make your mark.

FALCONS COMPETE ON A NATIONAL LEVEL IN THE ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC ARENAS

• BGSU was one of five colleges and universities chosen nationally to receive the 2007 CHEA Award for Institutional Progress in Student Learning Outcomes by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation.

• The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching recognizes BGSU for its curricular engagement with the community. The foundation, which uses national data to classify higher education institutions, created the elective classification in 2006. Only four other U.S. campuses received the curricular engagement designation, defined as "teaching, learning and scholarship that engages faculty, students and community in mutually beneficial and respectful collaboration.

• The Princeton Review says BGSU's MBA program is among the nation's best. The MBA program ranks fifth among schools providing the greatest opportunity for minority students, according to the 2008 edition of the Review's "Best 290 Business Schools."

• BGSU is among a select number of universities with "programs to look for" in the 2008 edition of "America's Best Colleges", published by U.S. News & World Report. This year, the University was cited for its first-year experience programs and learning communities. In addition, BGSU's supply chain management program climbed in the national ranking to a tie for 16th place. Other nationally known academic programs include college student personnel, photochemical sciences, popular culture, applied philosophy, policy history, musical arts, demography and sport management. Additionally, the cooperative education program ranked among the top 10 percent nationally.

• Teacher education programs at BGSU are recognized for leadership and innovation by the American Association of State Colleges and Universities.

• BGSU is the home of the John P. Scott Center for the Study of Neuroscience, one of the first interdisciplinary research centers of its kind in the United States, and the Center for Family and Demographic Research, which has major funding from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

• BGSU Athletics has received the MAC's institutional academic achievement award three times in the past 13 years posting the highest overall GPA among the league members in 1995, 1996 and 2001. Since 1990, BGSU has seen 35 student-athletes earn Academic All-American honors including a total of 15 since the year 2000.

• At the end of the 2007-08 academic year, BGSU student-athletes boasted an overall GPA of 3.0. In that year, and each of the two previous, the student-athletes' cumulative GPA was at least one-tenth of a point higher than the general student body population.

* In each of the last three years, those students comepting at the varisty level have seen higher graduation rates then those of the overall student body.
